Olympic torch is ready to light up the region

Towns and cities across the Black Country are celebrating as the full Olympic Torch route has been unveiled, bringing the iconic flame to the region as part of a national relay ahead of the London 2012 games.

Attractions including canals at the Black Country Living Museum in Dudley will be visited – and the tour will work its way through the Midlands before the relay culminates with a special evening of celebrations during an overnight stay in Birmingham city centre.

The torch will be in Staffordshire on May 30 and then again on June 30 before heading through the Black Country region. It will first pass through Bloxwich, Leamore, Birchills and Walsall.

It will then be taken through Wil-lenhall before heading to Wolverhampton and then on to Dudley via the Black Country Living Museum prior to heading to Oldbury, West Bromwich and Smethwick.

At the Black Country Living Museum, the torch bearer will take the flame on a trip along the canal in the Stour boat, as well as ride on the historic tram line through the popular attraction.

Museum chief executive Andrew Lovett said: "I feel so proud to welcome the Olympic Torch to the Black Country Living Museum, on behalf of the region."

Dudley Council leader Les Jones added: "I'm absolutely delighted. The Olympics is a major event that you don't normally get to see, so for people to be able to get so close to a part of it is marvellous."

Wyre Forest District Council chairman Councillor Steve Clee said he was "delighted".

"It will put Wyre Forest on the map – we are only the second council in Worcestershire to be visited so it is a big deal for us," he said.

The relay will pass through Willenhall before heading to Wolverhampton where a number of celebration events will be staged.

Councillor Elias Mattu, Wolverhampton City Council's Cabinet Member for Leisure and Communities, said: "Over the years Wolverhampton has produced many sportsmen and women who have represented the city on the national and international stage, and it is fitting tribute to them."

You are being watched by 700 cameras

More than 700 CCTV cameras are keeping watch on the streets of Dudley, new figures show. Around 127 of them are "pro-actively" monitored, according to a new report.

Produced by Dudley Council, the report says in total there are now around 750 council owned CCTV cameras, excluding schools, which are situated in locations that include council buildings, offices, halls, car parks, blocks of flats and depots. The council's CCTV control room is in Sedgley Police Station and is operational 24 hours a day.

Two members of staff are on duty at all times.

Borough bosses said the cameras help spot crime and help with vehicle flow on some of the borough's busiest roads.

Among those which are constantly monitored are car parks including the one on Stafford Street in Dudley town centre, and cameras at the town's bus station.

Leaders say the cameras that are not pro-actively monitored are looked at when needed.

Councillor Tim Wright, said: "The council uses a network of cameras to tackle crime and maintain safety in our town centres and public buildings, as well as assisting with traffic management and other issues across the borough."

"The authority monitors and records 127 cameras in our town centres, highways and other areas, 24-hours-a-day 365-days-a-year. The remainder of our cameras are positioned in venues including leisure centres, car parks, libraries and other council buildings which are monitored when needed."

"The council is currently reviewing the monitoring and management of CCTV in the Dudley borough."

A company called Legion group monitors the CCTV images.

Victim stabbed in graveyard attack

A 28-year-old man was stabbed several times in an attack at a Halesowen graveyard. The victim was found in a flat just feet away from the cemetery in Stourbridge Road and is in a serious condition in hospital.

Police cordoned off Halesowen Cemetery and the adjacent grounds of St John the Baptist Church on Saturday while forensic teams examined the scene.

The victim was found at around 8.30am on Saturday.

Police are investigating reports that he was attacked in the graveyard of the church and made his way to the flat. West Midlands Police spokesman Lee Page said officers were still trying to piece together what had happened, and when.

He said: "The man had suffered multiple stab wounds, which were life-threatening injuries. He was talking to us when we arrived at the scene but we are still trying to determine the sequence of events."

Extra help for veterans

Dudley Council has launched a new charter to offer extra help to military veterans to re-adjust to civilian life.

Former servicemen and women will benefit from services, including housing priority and leisure centre discounts. It follows a commitment by Dudley Council to work with other organisations to ensure veterans are getting the support they need. It includes ensuring people leaving forces accommodation are a council housing priority and also helping with council tax and housing benefit claims.

The charter is supported by the local Royal British Legion and Job Centre Plus, Dudley Citizens Advice Bureaux, Dudley Council for Voluntary Service and Dudley Chamber of Commerce.

Mother, 74, is injured and suspect charged with murder of her son

MAN, 47, FOUND KILLED AT HOME

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

A murder investigation has been started following the death of a 47-year-old man at his home in Dudley.

Kevin Jones was pronounced dead at the scene in Woodside and his 74-year-old mother Jean Jones taken to hospital with leg injuries following the incident. A man has appeared in court charged with murder.

It was not clear how Mr Jones was killed. Police patrols have been stepped up in the streets surrounding the house to provide reassurance to local families. William Spence, aged 38, of Fullwood Crescent, Dudley, is accused of murdering Mr Jones and assaulting his mother at the Buxton Road house at around 10.10pm on Saturday. He appeared at Dudley Magistrates Court where he was remanded in custody to appear at Wolverhampton Crown Court.

Cordoned

Neighbours spoke of their shock over the tragedy as the house, just yards from The New Testament Church of God, which was cordoned off for forensic investigations.

One resident, who did not wish to be named, said: "It is a real shock that something like this has happened around here. Usually it is such a quiet place."

"At first I thought it might have been something like kids messing about with fireworks, it being the bonfire weekend. But obviously it has turned out to be something far more serious."

A family friend, who did not wish to be named, said: "Jean is not very well and staying with friends. Everyone is distraught."

Neighbours say Mrs Jones returned home briefly but is believed to be staying with friends.

Ban Chinese lanterns call as car is set on fire

A car was destroyed in a blaze which started when a Chinese lantern landed on its bonnet. The Vauxhall Corsa was parked outside the home of owners Jackie Tetley and David Hickenbottom in Swanfield Road, Wordsley, when the stray lantern landed on it, causing a fire which spread to the inside of the car.

The couple described how they were alerted to the blaze by a neighbour and when they looked outside saw flames 2ft tall. It was the first of two fires, suspected to have been caused by Chinese lanterns, attended by firefighters in the Dudley borough last night.

The other, on the Gibbons Road Industrial Estate in Brierley Hill, damaged a tree. The owners of the car are now calling for the items to be banned.

A lantern landed on their car, causing a fire which spread through a vent, melting the dashboard. The couple are now calling for the lanterns, which consist of a metal frame with a candle inside, to be banned.

Frightening

"It's really frightening to think what could happen – there was a three-quarter-full tank of petrol there; what if we hadn't noticed the fire and it spread there?" said mother-of-one Miss Tetley.

"They are really dangerous, and something should be done. My car is probably written off so I will be out of pocket just because someone wanted to see a pretty flame go up in the sky."

Mr Hickenbottom, aged 47, said they had been watching TV when a neighbour knocked on their door to alert them on Sunday.

"I looked out the window and just saw flames, around two foot tall," he added.

"I couldn't believe it. I got the hose and fought it the best I could while Jackie called the police and fire brigade. It's shocking what damage they can cause."

Jackie Tetley, from Wordsley, and her damaged Vauxhall Corsa

Firefighters based in Brierley Hill were called to the blaze at 8.30pm – and less than four hours later, a crew from the same station were called to the other fire suspected to have been caused by a stray lanterns. Watch commander Dave Foley said the second fire had taken hold of a conifer tree at 11.55pm on the Gibbons Road Industrial Estate. "The estate is locked at night, with CCTV monitoring and no source of ignition that we could find near the tree," he said.

"We also found what looked like a metal frame from one of these kind of lanterns nearby. We can't prove that's what caused the fire but that's what we suspect. In my personal opinion, they are very dangerous things indeed."

Hotline to blow the whistle

Five reports have been made to a new hotline and website set up by Dudley Council to catch workers suspected of stealing or misusing resources, or outside groups that falsely obtain contracts or grants.

The authority set up the new scheme last month so people and workers can blow the whistle on staff or groups they believe are wrongly using the authority's cash and equipment.

Now bosses have revealed the new scheme has already attracted a response.

Councillor David Blood, said: "It's one month since the launch of Dudley Council's fraud hotline and website and to date we have received five reports."

"The council remains committed to making sure council money is used for the purposes for which it is intended, meeting the needs of local people."

He added: "All reported incidents will be investigated thoroughly."

Under the new scheme, residents and council staff are able to report any suspicion of fraud which will then be investigated by a specialist team.

This includes fraudulent use of money, such as people getting cash they are not entitled to, including payments for contracts, supplies or grants.

It can also include the theft or misuse of council resources, such as stores, equipment, vehicles or buildings belonging to the authority.

To report suspected fraud visit www.dudley.gov.uk/fraud or call the dedicated hotline on 01384 814242.

People will be asked to leave a recorded message. Details are held in strict confidence.

Woodwork show

An exhibition of work by members of the Woodworkers' Guild, including carving and scrollwork, has opened in Halesowen. The items are on show at Halesowen Library, in the Cornbow Centre, and will remain there until the end of the month. The Guild meets every other Wednesday at the Quinborne Centre in Ridgacre Road, Quinton, between 7pm and 9.30pm. Call 0121 427 6375.

Work to shut pools

Two pools at a popular leisure centre in Stourbridge are to shut for more than a month for repairs costing £474,000.

The leisure pool, which has a wave machine and is used by families, and the 25-metre pool at Crystal Leisure Centre will close on November 21.

Both will remain shut until January 3, while work to replace the air handling units is carried out.

The units replace the originals that have been in place since the centre opened in 1990 and will reduce running costs. Routine maintenance and repairs will also be undertaken.

Councillor Les Jones, leader of Dudley Council, said, we apologise for any inconvenience caused while we carry out these essential works and hope disruption will be kept to a minimum.

Academy bid voted in

Governors have voted through plans to transform a Halesowen high school into an academy – despite massive opposition from teachers and parents.

The Earls High School will become an academy by the start of next year, with school chiefs claiming the decision will give more control over budgets.

Around 100 people turned out to protest against the plan last month, claiming there had not been a thorough consultation, claiming the move would make the school less accountable.

Vice principal Richard Jacobs said he believed the decision was "very positive" – and reassured worried staff and parents that the school would continue to run exactly as it is currently.

Link road work may start within weeks

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

A new link road between the two major tourist attractions in Dudley is set to be one of the first projects built as part of a £10 million transformation.

The plans to link Dudley Zoo and the Black Country Living Museum have been in the pipeline for years but were held back by nearby roadworks at the Burnt Tree junction and the new Tesco. Since £4.5m European funding was agreed, plans are being drawn up to start work on the link road in Dudley within weeks.

Dudley regeneration chief councillor Angus Adams, said they were keen to move the diggers in "as soon as possible".

Detailed plans are being drawn up for the road, which will run from near the Trading Post premises in Castle Hill to the back of the museum in nearby Tipton Road.

The road will also provide access to the Dudley Canal Trust at the back of the museum. The scheme includes a large car park which would be shared by the attractions. Council chiefs are now planning a programme of road closures for the area while the work is carried out.

Demolished

Councillor Adams said: "We want to get going as soon as we can."

"Everything is in place now – the old Royal Brierley Crystal building next to the museum has been demolished, so it is all set up for work to begin."

The scheme, which forms part of a wider project across 200 hectares of land around Castle Hill, eventually hopes to pave the way for dozens of new businesses and turn the district into a tourism and leisure hub.

The foundation of this hub will be created with the building of a shared arrival point and car park for visitors to the three attractions, leading off Tipton Road, and the £6m Sandwell archive building.

Plots for other leisure and tourism attractions will be created along the road.

Builders ready to move in and revamp JB's club

Contractors will move in to begin work to revamp former Dudley rock club JB's this week as its new owners aim to reopen by Christmas.

Former fixtures such as the bars and toilets will be ripped out and replaced, and the club in Dudley will be refitted with the latest sound system. Wolverhampton businessman Raj Kumar bought the club at an auction in September for £225,000, nine months after it closed down. "I will be spending next week talking to people in the local area to see what role they want us to play," he said.

Horses killed by arson attack on stables

The scene of the fire which killed three young horses in Pensnett, Dudley

These two young horses escaped the stables blaze but still suffered injuries

Three horses were killed and two seriously injured in an arson attack on a stables in the Black Country.

Police and fire officers were investigating after detection equipment showed petrol was used to set the shelter ablaze.

Two foals, aged six months and eight months, and a 14-month-old horse were trapped inside and killed in the fire, while two other horses managed to escape, possibly by kicking down the stable doors. One was left blind while the other suffered severe smoke inhalation, and both were put on a 24-hour emergency watch by a vet.

The wreckage of the stables, in a field off Huntsmill Drive, Pensnett, Dudley, was discovered Sunday morning by its devastated owners, who had driven there to feed the animals.

Owner June Thornton, aged 63, who lives nearby in Smithy Lane with her husband Paul, 66, said: "I'm heartbroken."

Witnesses should call police on 0345 113 5000.

Plea by farmer on sites bid

A farmer made an emotional plea to council bosses to rethink proposals for a travellers site near his home at a lively public meeting in Stourport.

Manor Farm is one of four spots being considered in the town for new pitches by Wyre Forest District Council. But the farmer who works the land fears it will put his farm in jeopardy.

Tim Barnes, whose family have worked on the land since 1957, says the farm is home to three businesses and is keeping six people in work.

He fears the future of the 17-acre farm could be in jeopardy if the council pushes ahead with the proposals for a travellers site.

At a public meeting at Stourport Civic Hall recently, where around 180 people heard the debate, he said it had been "a stressful time" for his family and urged council chiefs to scrap the plans.

"Please can you think about people's families and livelihoods. Manor Farm has been my past and Stourport's past. With all of your help it can be my future too," he said.

His passionate speech led to a standing ovation and round of applause from many in the audience.

Stourport councillor Dixon Shepherd said: "It should never have been one of the sites up for consideration."

The consultation process runs until November 18.

Man claimed to be his son

A driver who pretended to be his son when stopped by police – despite there being a 30 year age gap – has been banned from driving.

Godwin Chabata, aged 52, has never passed his test but drove his son's car to collect his wife on September 18, Dudley Magistrates Court heard. He was involved in a crash with another car in Highbridge Road, Netherton but gave his 22-year-old son's name to officers as he was the registered owner.

Police worked out he was lying, said Mr Mark Cooper, prosecuting, and arrested him. Mr Robert Skinner, defending, said Chabata was "shocked" after the crash.

Chabata, of Lodge Crescent, Dudley, admitted obstructing a police constable, driving without a licence, and using a vehicle without insurance. He was banned for six months, and ordered to pay a £270 in fines, £85 costs and a £15 victim surcharge.

Firm donates cash to charity

A computer firm has donated more than £300 to a Midland children's charity from selling old mobile phones.

OGL Computer has given the money to Mentor Link, Stourport which trains and provides mentors to support children throughout Worcestershire. Mentors are trained to listen to, support and encourage the young people. OGL Computer has supported Mentor Link since the summer and has donated the cheque for £326.

Award for social care boss

A Black Country social care boss has received a top award for her work to implement Government reforms at organisations in the region.

Debbie Le Quesne won the outstanding contribution to social care honour at the Great British Care Awards held at Birmingham's ICC. The 50-year-old is chief executive officer of the Halesowen-based West Midlands Care Association which gives advice and support to public and private care operations.

"It's huge honour to receive this much-respected award, but in all conscience I cannot possibly own it as my own," said Miss Le Quesne. "It represents countless hours of hard work by my staff, association directors and not least the local authorities we partner in modernising the delivery of care."

Miss Le Quesne, from Wolverhampton, who joined the association in 2003, has been involved in care work since she was aged 14 working as a volunteer with the Phab charity which works with disabled. She later continued her interests in care as a Rotaract and Rotary Club volunteer, which included helping to set up a respite centre - Merton House in Ross on Wye - before taking a marketing job with the association.

Band at Albert Hall

Young performers in the Black Country will take to the stage at the Royal Albert Hall this week.

Dudley Performing Arts Wind Band will perform as part of a national Schools Prom. More than 60 children and young people will perform in London on November 9.

The band is made up of youngsters aged 15 to 19 from across the borough. The prom is the final event of the National Festival of Music for Youth. The band first performed at the regional festival at Netherton Arts Centre, where they were put forward for the Albert Hall event.

Councillor Liz Walker, cabinet member for children's services, said: "Dudley has a great tradition of achievement in the National Festival of Music for Youth. I hope they thoroughly enjoy the experience of performing at such a venue."

Deaths in the workplace are on the increase

The number of people killed at work in the West Midlands increased by 44 per cent in the past year, new figures claim.

There were 13 fatal injuries in the year to March, up from nine in the previous 12 months. The number of deaths had fallen in each of the last three years. The region mirrored the national picture, with deaths on the rise but falls in the number of people injured and unwell at work.

There were 2,259 major injuries reported, including amputations, fractures and burns, compared to 2,464 in 2009/10. Total injuries were down 5.7 per cent.

Nationally 171 fatal injuries were suffered in the workplace, up from 147 in the previous 12 months.

Major injuries were down from 26,268 to 24,700 and there were 90,653 other injuries serious enough to keep people off work for four or more days, the Health and Safety Executive statistics show. In 2009/10 the figure was 96,427. An estimated 1.2 million people said they were suffering from an illness caused or made worse by their work, down from 1.3 million in 2009/10.

The HSE said Britain continues to have the lowest rate of fatal occupational injuries in Europe.

HSE chairman Judith Hackitt said: "The fall in the number of people being injured by work is, of course, to be welcomed but we did also see an increase in the number of fatalities during the year."

"Britain can be proud that it has one of the best health and safety records in Europe but, as the increase in the number of fatalities makes clear, we can never let up in our commitment to addressing the serious risks which continue to cause death and injury in workplaces. HSE will continue to work with employers, employees and other organisations to maintain, and where necessary improve, health and safety standards. We all have a responsibility to make sure serious workplace risks are sensibly managed."

No 'viable' offers of buyer for stores

Stores across the Black Country that closed when a DIY chain went into administration have failed to attract a single "viable" offer from potential buyers.

And administrators have said that the landlords of each Focus store have so far refused offers for the leases to be surrendered - leaving the outlets with an uncertain future.

Stores in Wolverhampton, Wednesfield, Kingswinford, Aldridge and Walsall all closed down in June with the loss of more than 100 jobs. Administrators Ernst & Young moved in and started looking for firms willing to take over, but so far none have been found. The administrators offered to surrender the lease to the landlord of each property - but this has been refused at each site.

A total of 17 jobs went to a shop in the Peel Centre, Stafford Street in Wolverhampton, along with 17 in Lichfield Road, Wednesfield, 18 at Walsall Retail Park, 19 in Coppice Lane, Aldridge and 30 in Dudley Road, Kingswinford.

Ernst & Young spokesman Nsikan Edung said: "The administrators undertook a property marketing exercise in respect of all of Focus's trading stores. Unfortunately we did not receive viable offers in respect of these five stores."

He added: "On vacation, the stores were handed back to the respective landlords, and the store leases offered for surrender. Focus retains no interest in these stores, however, to date our offer to surrender the leases to these stores has not been accepted by the respective landlords."

Focus went into administration in May when it was announced 122 stores across the country would close.

Classical music show

Young composers are hoping to get their work performed by professional musicians at a concert.

Classical group The Korma Trio will run a workshop at King Edward VI Sixth Form College, Stourbridge on November 18. The following day, Saturday November 19, they will perform at St James's Church Wollaton, and are looking to include some of the students' work.

Tickets for the 7.30pm show are £7, with under-18s free, and are available on the night from the church or from Music Matters in Market Street, Stourbridge.

The scheme has been organised by Local & Live, a not-for-profit group of classical music enthusiasts.

Metal thieves targeted

Undercover police officers are being dispatched to scrap metal dealers across the West Midlands to conduct a series of test purchases looking for stolen metal.

The covert purchases are being made as part of Operation Stealth, a scheme launched by police to cut down on metal thieves plugging the region.

A day of action to promote the operation saw 20 scrapyards across Dudley visited and Stealth pursues warning of police action to cut down on metal thieves plugging the region.

Sgt Jay Gregory, who led the action, said the day had raised awareness. "Scrap dealers are now in no doubt of the action they will face if they are caught accepting stolen goods," he said.

Insp Richard Jones said since Operation Stealth was launched in July, the number of metal-related offences had fallen by around half, from around 140 a month to around 70.

Charity's in the pink

Regular at a Black Country pub has raised at least £1,000 for a local hospice by dyeing his hair pink.

Alan Savage, aged 57, a regular at the Red Cow pub in Grosvenor Road, Lower Gornal, had the makeover in aid of Mary Stevens Hospice in Stourbridge. So far he has had pledges of more than £1,000 in sponsorship.

He said: "Everyone has been so supportive and Castle Taxis of Dudley have agreed to help transport me around pubs in the locality so that I can say a personal thank you to all those who have donated the funds."

Janet Jones, head of fundraising at the hospice said: "We really appreciate all of Alan's efforts."

Rethink on festival as support falters

Ticket sales for Dudley's annual Festival of Remembrance have plummeted in recent years - sparking emergency meetings to address the problem.

While five years ago the event at Dudley Concert Hall drew audiences of more than 600, this year's concert on November 10 seems unlikely to reach 400. Organisers have revealed plans to revamp the festival, including moves to increase its appeal to a younger audience.

Ian Rawlings, from the Kingswinford Gentlemen Songsters Male Voice Choir, who host the concert every year, said he would be looking into joining forces with the Royal British Legion and other ex-Servicemens' clubs.

"The problem is, we have an ageing audience and every time one veteran dies you might lose four or five people who might have joined them at the concert," he said.

"It just doesn't seem to appeal to a modern audience so we will have to look closely at our marketing strategy and how we stage the event - and we will have to do that as soon as this one is over."

The traditional poppy-drop, carried out by concert hall staff during the minute's silence, will be slightly different this year as council health and safety watchdogs raised concerns. In previous years, staff had to clamber across the roof and up a ladder to reach the drop spot. But Mr Rawlings said he was now examining other options such as having a netting system to release the poppies. Tickets are £8, available from Dudley box office on 01384 812812 or the choir on 01384 838863.

Jean shows her talent

Variety show organiser Jenny Marson is with Steve Welch and Jean Martyn

Britain's Got Talent star Jean Martyn was among performers at a variety show in the Black Country.

Organist Jean, who is from Brewood, was guest of honour at the Compton Hospice Annual Gala.

More than 150 guests turned out at Baggeidge Social Welfare Centre in Dudley.

Jean was joined on stage by Rod Stewart tribute act Garry Pease, magician Christopher Congreave and Ozgen, a belly dancer from Turkey. The event was compered by Steve Welch, from Lower Gornal. All proceeds from the event went to the Wolverhampton charity

Jean, who made it to the live finals this year of BGT, played a 25-minute medley of songs on her keyboard including Crocodile Rock, Great Balls of Fire and Raining Men.

She said: "It's lovely to play to a small, select group."

Dangerous weed is costing thousands

Councils across the region are spending thousands dealing with a weed that can damage the foundations of buildings and destroy gardens.

Land owners, householders and gardeners fear the invasion of Japanese Knotweed, first introduced into Britain in the 19th century, which can grow at a rate of four inches a day. If left unchecked it can kill off native species and in some cases damage building foundations. Dudley Council has set aside around £100,000 to deal with it.

Now borough bosses have decided to develop a formal policy to deal with control of the species.

Staff in the authority's urban environment department have been surveying the borough and say so far it appears that around 150,000sqm of private and council land is affected.

Infestations have been found on a sites which include derelict land, open spaces, school grounds, residential gardens and conservation sites. Neighbouring Sandwell Council chiefs say they spend around £10,000 a year on the problem.

Councillor Derek Rowley said: "When it is reported and it is on council owned land we treat the site twice a year with weedkiller and that site is kept on a register so that the position can be monitored regularly."

South Staffordshire Council has spent around £5,000 so far this year treating Japanese Knotweed. There are 16 sites in the district where it is known to be growing.

Council bosses in Cannock and Stafford say they don't have a dedicated budget to deal with the problem but treat it as and when a problem occurs on their land. It is a similar situation in Walsall where bosses say workers normally spray the weed.

Decision due over funding

A trust battling to buy a historic castle to ensure it remains open to the public will learn of a vital bid for £2.5 million funding has been successful later this month.

Hartlebury Castle Preservation Trust will learn if their initial application for cash from the Heritage Lottery Fund has been agreed on November 15.

Members said the decision would be a very important step in their plans to buy the site and admitted it would be a "nail-biting" two weeks until the decision was made.

The group is already on the way to securing £25,000 in match-funding which is needed as part of the bid and is confident all of the cash will be available by next month. Much of this money has been raised through donations and charity events.

If the first-phase funding is agreed on November 15 the group will then need to send a second, more detailed, application to the trust for final approval. Members said they were "optimistic" of a positive decision on the funding but were continuing to look at other options, should the bid fail.

The group wants to buy the castle from the Church of England to ensure the site stays open to the public.

It was deemed surplus more than a year ago, and the trust was originally given an exclusive option to buy it.

But talks broke down after the trust said the asking price and conditions were unrealistic. Church officials decided to put the site on the open market.

Homes plan for pub site

A plan for new homes on the site of a pub named after one of Dudley's most famous sons has been given the go-ahead.

The Duncan Edwards pub, between Priory Road and Maple Road in Dudley, was knocked down three years ago after falling into disrepair.

Residents and councillors called for the land to be brought back into use after it became a magnet for vandalism. It will be given a new lease of life after Dudley Council's development control committee agreed with officers' recommendations and granted outline approval for 12 homes.

Landowners Clubbrie Ltd already had permission to create three shops and 26 parking spaces leading to Priory Road.

But the developer now wants to forge ahead with plans for the site which is boarded-up and overgrown. The new homes will be two-storey, four-bedroom houses.

Dance for charity

A barn dance for the Alzheimer's Society will be held at Hagley Community Centre near Stourbridge on November 11. Music for the dances will be provided by Worcestershire band Banjacs. Dancers are asked to bring their own drinks and food towards an American supper. Tickets are £7 for adults and £3.50 for children from Alzheimer's Society on 01384 295355 or 01562 886300.

Winter safety tips

Worcestershire County Council has launched a new campaign called the Winter Weather, Be Safe, Be Warm and Be a Good Neighbour to ensure householders stay safe.

Simon Geraghty, of the council said: "Whether in your home or on the road, it is important to stay safe and warm during the chilly winter. With careful planning and a couple of useful tips, we can protect ourselves and make this weather bearable."

Motorists are being encouraged to check the weather before heading out, and ensure their wipers, tyres and lights are ready and safe for the trip. It is also recommended to prepare an 'emergency kit' which could include an extra mobile battery, blankets, flashlight, spare batteries, first aid kit, extra clothing, shovel, water and non-perishable food items.

Council fighting back over spurious claims

A woman who tripped over a neighbour's bin bag and someone who slipped on a wet piece of litter are among hundreds of spurious personal injury claims lodged with Dudley Council.

More than 830 people have lodged claims amounting to around £4 million with the authority since the start of 2008 – but 464 of those cases have been ruled "spurious" and thrown out. Council bosses have revealed they have paid out just £500,000 for the claims.

'Tommy' to be focus of ceremony

A war memorial honouring soldiers who served in both world wars will be at the centre of a Remembrance service at the Black Country Living Museum.

The eight-ton bronze figure, nicknamed 'Tommy', is dedicated to those who served in both wars and commemorates former Springfield Brewery workers in Wolverhampton.

Twelve standard bearers, representing the British Legion, will be attending the ceremony and Major Ray Baddams, Salvation Army Chaplain will be conducting the service.

David Eveleigh, for the legion, said: "The memorial is a testimony to the bravery of local heroes and we feel privileged not only to be able to hold the Remembrance Service here at the museum but also to keep alive the memories of Black Country soldiers who made the ultimate sacrifice."

Employees

The Springfield Brewery Retired Employees Association has held a service at the monument each year since 1923. The Remembrance Service was originally intended to commemorate those who died in the First World War but after the Second World War the ceremony was extended to focus on both conflicts. The event takes place at 10.30 am on November 11.

● The Black Country Living Museum has won a local award. The site in Tipton Road, Dudley, was named the Best Daytime Family Attraction award at the Beacon Best Awards 2011. Beacon Radio listeners nominated more than 1,000 businesses within 11 categories.

The public then voted for their favourite businesses in the Black Country. The civic hall in Wolverhampton was named as the best nightclub or entertainment venue.

The best takeaway was deemed to be Percy Plonkers Hot Dogs in Cannock.

And Tipton Toddlers Day Nursery was named best nursery.

£10,000 poppy target

The Bewdley branch of the Royal British Legion has launched its annual Poppy Appeal – with their sights set on reaching the £10,000 benchmark for the first time.

Councillor Paul Gittins, who is chairman of the branch helped launch this year's appeal with a cheque for £1,000 which he raised during his stint as Mayor of Bewdley last year. A concert was held at St

Anne's Church to launch this year's appeal, on Saturday, featuring a performance from the Kidderminster Male Voice Choir, who were supported by solo vocalist and West End performer David Lawrence.

Last year, the branch raised a record £9,891.60 for the appeal.

For more information about the appeal in Bewdley, call Councillor Gittins on 01299 404113.

Council hopes for returns

Hopes have been raised that a Midland council will get back millions of pounds it invested in Icelandic banks following a court ruling.

Wyre Forest District Council invested £9 million in the banks and has been able to reclaim just over a third since they collapsed two and a half years ago.

Council bosses have repeatedly stated they were confident they will get most of the cash back as it has been allocated priority status, meaning it should receive a return of 90p for every £1 invested.

However, bond holders in the banks challenged this for a second time.

But the Icelandic Supreme Court has now ruled in a test case that the priority status can remain.

The council must now wait to see if this verdict is applied to all creditors – including itself – but bosses say the result is a positive step forward.

The council has a £3m deposit with Landsbanki which was due to mature in late October 2008. The court action has been ongoing for over a year and has involved councils from across the country. Council leader John Campion said: "We are delighted the Icelandic Supreme Court has found in favour of UK local authorities and other UK wholesale depositors."

MP backing disclosure

A Black Country MP has voiced his support for Government proposals to give women the right to know whether a new partner has a history of domestic violence.

The Home Office has launched a consultation over how a national domestic violence disclosure scheme could work in practice following a campaign by the father of Clare Wood, who was strangled in 2009 by an ex-boyfriend she had met through Facebook.

Unknown to her, her murderer, George Appleton, had three previous convictions under the anti-stalking Protection from Harassment Act 1987, and had kidnapped a previous girlfriend at knifepoint.

Dudley South MP Chris Kelly said: "It's right we consider disclosing information about an individual's history of domestic violence to their partner if it could protect potential victims of this terrible crime."

Blood Brothers play at town hall

Olivier Award-winning play Blood Brothers play a week-long stint on stage in Stourbridge.

The play, by Willy Russell, tells of two brothers Mickey and Edward, who were separated at birth and ended up taking different paths through life – one is an Oxbridge graduate and the other in prison.

But then they both fall for the same girl, causing a rift in their newfound friendship. The Stourbridge Theatre Company, will stage the play at the Town Hall from November 24 and 26. Tickets range from £7 to £10. The curtain rises at 7.30pm.

Getting a ruby from Rubens

Manny Johal, right, with staff Lil Bahadur Khatri, Debbie Smith and Mehna Gul

A Black Country father has launched his first Indian restaurant in Dudley, creating jobs for seven people.

Manny Johal, aged 34, from Penn, Wolverhampton, has named the restaurant, at Dudley's Merry Hill Centre, after his three-year-old son Ruben.

Rubens Restaurant, in the "Eat Central" area of the centre, is now open and Manny is employing four full and three part-time staff.

He previously worked for Johal Catering, one of the largest Indian food catering firms in the country, which is owned by family friends, as a marketing executive. "After spending more than 12 years working in the catering industry, it is a huge personal achievement to be able to launch my first eatery in such an established shopping centre as Merry Hill," he said.

Kelly Reed, marketing manager at Merry Hill, said: "We believe variety is the spice of life, and we are committed to catering to a diverse range of tastes. We are sure shoppers will enjoy our new addition."

New fitness suite opened

A new fitness suite, which is part of a £1 million refurbishment project at Stourbridge College, has opened to students and staff.

It has been built at the Hagley Road Centre and follows the redevelopment of the sports hall. It contains the latest gym equipment including treadmills, exercise bikes, cross trainers and rowing machines and is part of a wider ongoing investment in upgrading facilities at the college.

Principal Lynette Cutting said: "We've invested in new leisure facilities."

The facilities are being used by the sports team.

"We have a variety of successful sports courses on offer and it's vital that students have access to facilities which include changing and showering facilities."

Plans are being drawn up to refurbish the learning resources centre and reception at the Hagley Road Centre to create a revamped student support services area.

There will also be a new multimedia centre where students attending the college will benefit from advanced technology systems and equipment.

Crash victim named

A man from the Black Country killed in a head-on smash between two vans on a country lane near Stourbridge has been named.

He was 55-year-old Robert James Hudson, of Lower High Street, Stourbridge.

The tragedy happened at the junction of Chester Road and Clanbrook Road, near the Fox Inn at Stourton. Mr Hudson, who was driving one of the vans involved – a white Volkswagen – was declared dead at the scene.

The driver of the second van, belonging to City Link, a 34-year-old man from Tipton, suffered minor head injuries.

Staffordshire police appealed for witnesses, including a passer-by who helped out in the aftermath of the crash, to contact Sgt Matthew Walker or Sgt Tim Heap on 0300 123 4455.

Scheme aims to cut call outs to fire alarms

A scheme used in the West Midlands which cuts the number of firefighters sent to automatic fire alarms could be used in the Wyre Forest.

At the moment crews are sent out automatically to any alarm, but under the new plans, they would carry out an assessment first, to see if they are needed to go to the scene.

Fire control room operators will in future ask questions to establish if there is a fire – or if it was triggered accidentally. But bosses say they will still go out to "high risk" premises such as care homes and schools.

At hospitals and non-residential premises, including offices, shops, factories and warehouses, where the fire service says there is less of a risk, they will only attend once a 999 call is received.

Birmingham and Wolverhampton introduced the system earlier this year. Hereford & Worcester Fire and Rescue Service says 95 per cent of automatic fire alarm call-outs turn out to be false.

Around a third of the 8,000 callouts the service receives each year involve the alarms, and they say crews lose an estimated 4,000 hours attending false alarms.

Area Commander George Sherry said false alarms "divert services from real emergencies, potentially putting life and property at risk".

He added: "Furthermore, they present an unnecessary risk to crews and the public whilst responding under blue-lights and they divert time away from firefighter training, community fire safety and other education work."

With these factors in mind, it was essential that we carried out a review and implement changes in the way we respond to alarms – particularly in the current climate where public resources are stretched."

Full details of the proposals can be found at www.hwfire.org.uk. A consultation into the plans closes on November 11. In Birmingham, West Midlands Fire Service started sending just one engine instead of two to automatic alarms in January.

Quarry permit is likely

A permit granting a quarry in Kingswinford permission to crush and recycle bricks is set for approval – despite more than 1,300 objections.

People living nearby are concerned about dust and noise. WCL Quarries has applied to Dudley Council for permission to carry out the work at the Ketley Quarry site in Dudley Road.

A report published by the council states a permit with conditions may be the only way to ensure restrictions such as dust levels were complied with. Environment chief Councillor David Stanley is due to sign the permit on November 10.

Pensioner Barry Short, aged 72, lives in nearby Robin Close and said he was "very disappointed" by the news. "I would have liked to see them take a bit more notice of all the people who signed petitions and sent in objections," he said.

WCL director Simon Winner said the crushed bricks would be used to ensure the ground was stable enough to be built on when the quarry was restored in 2042. "We will continue to take residents' concerns seriously."

Van man arrested

A man has been arrested for being equipped to steal after a van was spotted in suspicious circumstances at Frankley, near Halesowen.

Officers went to Frankley Green after receiving a call at about 11.25pm on October 29, about a white van which was being driven around there.

Police subsequently stopped a van and arrested the driver on suspicion of going equipped to steal. A number of items were seized from the vehicle including a sat nav which was suspected as having been stolen.

The man, who is in his 30s, was questioned and released on police bail until December 16, pending further inquiries.

Drinkers putting bite on pub over dog ban

Pet owners are boycotting an award-winning Black Country pub after bosses banned dogs. The Beacon Hotel, Sedgley has angered customers who say pets have been allowed inside for as long as they can remember.

They are now collecting a petition in a bid to try to get the decision reversed. However, Beacon landlord John Hughes said he had become concerned for people's safety after three "serious complaints" were made. One of the incidents involved a man being bitten on the ankle.

The Beacon, which has been named West Midlands Pub of the Year by Camra for four years running, was one of only a few pubs where dogs were allowed, said Mr Hughes.

Victoria Perry, aged 33, said she was shocked to see a notice in the pub informing customers that dogs would be banned. She has been taking Wilf, her four-year-old King Charles Spaniel, along to The Beacon for four years, and has been going there regularly for the last eight years.

She claims to have the support of scores of regulars in her fight against the new rules.

Mrs Perry, a nurse in A&E at Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital, said: "Dogs have been welcome as long as anyone can remember so I was really shocked when I saw that notice."

Atmosphere

"A lot of people go to the pub for the good beer and the atmosphere – but also because it is dog-friendly. People take their dogs out for a walk and then pop in for a drink."

Mr Hughes said: "Pubs that sell food no longer allow dogs but, as we only focus on ale, we tend to get more than our fair share here. We love dogs, don't get me wrong, and it is regrettable that we have had to make this decision."

"But I have a duty of care to my customers. We have children's areas and I am concerned that something serious could happen." Mr Hughes sparked controversy last year when he banned a blind dog from his pub, saying there had been a number of complaints about 12-year-old mongrel Toby urinating on the floor.

Front, Victoria Perry with Louise Sharp, and Wilf, and Chris Sharp, with Max who are organising a petition.

Have your say on polling sites

Residents across the borough are invited to have their say as part of a review of polling stations in Dudley.

Every four years councils have to look at its polling districts and polling stations to see if anything needs changing.

People are being asked for comments on the location and ease of access to the current polling stations until November 18.

Head of electoral services Alison

Malcolm said: "This review is an important opportunity for members of the public to give their views on the location and suitability of polling stations across Dudley borough."

Information on the current arrangements is available on the council's website at www.dudley.gov.uk.

People can also visit the electoral services department at Kudos House in Ednam Road, Dudley.

Waiting for cut-price cuts

The hair and beauty salon within the new Tesco Extra superstore

Manager Angelina Lawrence, Lynsey Round, Paige Corns, Matt Webb, Ravinder Kaur

Catherine Coakley has a break from shopping

The new Tesco at Burnt Tree, Dudley can boast some of the best coiffured and manicured shoppers after being among the first in the country to launch cut price hair and beauty in its aisles.

The idea is really taking off, with shoppers queuing for £10 wash, cut and blow dries. But, for some, it has meant waits of 90 minutes or more as staff in the Regis hair and beauty salon snip and primp away non-stop 10 hours a day. However, with no appointments you have to wait on one of two small benches – or, at peak times, stand – for however long it takes until a stylist is free. Neither can you register, pop off for a coffee or to do your shopping and expect to keep the same place in the queue when you return.

That wait can be up to two hours – as one of the three stylists on duty was occupied by a young Dudley woman. She had arrived with long curly tresses and stylist Matt Webb had to cut her hair as she went for a sleek "Victoria Beckham" style bob.

Her bill was still only £10 – and, meanwhile, at least one customer was charged just £5, with a manicure thrown in, to compensate her for her wait. And, while most people were happy to queue, one couple did storm off, despite being offered a free hairdo, when they were told they must wait more than an hour. The popularity of the salon is boosted by the £10 offer. After November 12 it will go up to £15 and, after December 10, it will rise to the normal price of £20. Manager Angelina Lawrence said: "In our first three weeks, we've been doing about 30 customers a day and staff have been working flat-out."

Third restaurant is on brink of a deal

A restaurant firm is on the brink of signing a deal on the third and final main restaurant outlet at the Merry Hill Shopping Centre's food hall.

A new two-tier restaurant is set to open next to Pizzax Express, which alongside Nandos will form the frontage to the Eat Central complex.

However bosses at the centre remained tight-lipped over the identity of the company.

The deal was set to be signed by the firm at the end of last week.

Merry Hill spokeswoman Kelly Reed said: "I cannot say who we are dealing with, as it is commercially sensitive information at this stage."

"We will be able to name the company when that has been done, which should be completed by Friday."

Plans submitted to Dudley Council by centre owners Westfield reveal that since the £24million Eat Central food court opened two years ago, in October 2009, the unit next to Pizzax Express has failed to attract any interest.

But earlier this year, bosses were approached by the unnamed company who said they would pursue moving into the vacant unit if one of the storerooms at the back could be turned into a takeaway facility.

The plans were approved by council planning officers this week, paving the way for the deal to be signed.

Two are remanded over stab incident outside pub

Two people have been remanded in custody after appearing in court following a stabbing.

The attack took place outside the Star and Garter pub in High Street, Droitwich, on Friday.

A man in his 40s was taken to the Alexandra Hospital for treatment for stab wounds and was later discharged.

Police arrested a 17-year-old youth and an 18-year-old man on suspicion of wounding with intent and possession of a firearm with intent to cause fear or violence.

The pair were later charged and appeared at Worcester Magistrates' Court last week when they were remanded in custody.

Residents look to hire legal crusader

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

Elderly residents and campaigners have pledged to hire a crusading lawyer to help in their battle to overturn a council decision to shut a care home in Dudley borough.

Solicitor Yvonne Hossack, who helped elderly residents fighting to stay at the ill-fated Underhill House, Underhill, Wolverhampton and campaigned over care home closures in Staffordshire, has met with campaigners trying to save New Bradley Hall in Kingswinford. The group has now vowed to start fundraising to cover its legal costs.

Dudley Council plans to shut the home in Compton Drive, along with three others within three years in a shake-up of adult social care services in the borough.

Miss Hossack told residents she believed they could have a legal case to fight the closure and worked through various options about what to do next with them.

Decision

She said: "The residents here have a case that the council should answer into the decision behind why this council run care home is closing. It sounds to me that there was little or no consultation and this is no way to treat the elderly residents."

She added: "It is a tough battle to stop care home closures but that is not to say that something can't be done."

After meeting with the solicitor, residents confirmed they planned to start a fundraising campaign to help fund their legal fight and secure the services of Miss Hossack. They will need to raise at least £3,000 initially.

Under the council plans, New Bradley Hall, New Bridge House in Cosely and New Swinford Hall in Stourbridge would close their doors by April 2014, along with Shenstone House in Halesowen, which would close in March.

Council chiefs say the decision to close the homes has not been made to cope with budget cuts but is instead part of moves to keep elderly people independent and in their own homes for longer.

In other cases Miss Hossack has worked on she has secured assurances by council leaders to build a new home to replace three facing closure in Nottinghamshire and worked on campaigns to keep care homes open in Hull, East Yorkshire.

Residents and family members who are worried about the possible closure of New Bradley Hall, Kingswinford

Residents' fears on eco park

A new £120 million eco park in Coseley will house a waste processing plant – angering residents who fear it will damage the area.

They are now launching a campaign to try to stop the plant from being built. The facility would convert thousands of tons of rubbish into electricity.

The eco park has been billed as "one of the most environmentally-friendly employment destinations in the Midlands". It is expected to create up to 1,300 new jobs on the 66-acre site stretching between Birmingham New Road and Sedgley Road West, which will also contain a supermarket and 200 homes. But campaigners fear the Energy Recovery Facility, which reacts waste with gases at a high temperature to generate heat and electricity, could actually damage the environment.

Residents say it had not been made clear that a waste plant was part of the plans. They are concerned that the fumes coming from the chimney stack could pollute the atmosphere.

Developers say the plant is not an incinerator as the waste would not actually combust. They say each year it will process up to 120,000 tons of waste and generate up to 11MW of electricity, enough for 11,000 homes.

Carla Ward, of Thunderbolt Way, is starting a petition against the plant.

She said: "As a neighbour to the site, I'm really shocked by the scale of the plans for the ERF, and the pollution it will cause."

Graham Willson, director of the site's owner, Skelton Group Investments, said they had been "open" about the waste plant proposals.

He added: "This process is 10 times cleaner than any other of its kind which allows us to use it an area like Coseley. I am confident we can allay people's fears and show them this is not the same as an incinerator."

A planning application for the eco park was submitted to Dudley Council last week.

Emin's art is part of exhibition

A new artwork by controversial artist Tracey Emin is on show at the Broadfield House Glass Museum in Kingswinford.

The piece 'Trust Me' is a neon light installation and is on loan from the White Cube gallery in London.

Her neon pieces are created from her own hand-drawn designs and made in London.

Emin, who has been seen recently as the final celebrity to research her family history in the most recent series of Who Do You Think You Are?, has won many awards for her work.

The piece is part of the Light Fantastic exhibition at the Dudley Council museum which explores how six artists use neon in their work.

As well as Emin, the artists featured in the display are Sarah Blood, Sharon Foley, Jessica Lloyd-Jones, Keith Brocklehurst and Richard William Wheeler.

Light Fantastic runs until February 19. Admission is free.

It's fitness fun for the over 50s

Older people across Dudley are being given the chance to keep fit – with yoga, belly dancing and Zumba classes.

Age UK's Spring Board project has funded a new activity base at the Brierley Hill Methodist Church.

Sessions, for those age 50 and over, will run every Monday between 10am and 4pm at the Bank Street Church and they include special sessions aimed at men.

To mark the official launch of the new sessions an official opening was held.

Those who went along got the chance to enjoy some free refreshments as well as exercises such as Zumba, belly dancing, line dancing and yoga.

Springboard Co-ordinator Jenny Worwood: "We already have a centre at Merry Hill but it has proved so popular we have expanded. The sessions are aimed at any one over the age of 50."

Views are sought on library move

The public are being urged to have their say on plans which could see Netherton library moved from its historic home.

The library, which houses Netherton Arts Centre, would be switched to the Savoy Centre in Northfield Road, Netherton, under plans drawn up to make the service more efficient, improve access and save cash. Dudley Council bosses have launched a consultation and are asking people for their views. The consultation closes on November 11 and the results will be shared at a meeting of the cabinet in December.

Councillor Adrian Turner, cabinet member for libraries, said: "Netherton Library provides a great service and is popular with many residents. Asking people to tell us what they would like helps us plan ahead."

People can take part in the consultation during library opening hours which are: Mondays and Fridays, 9am-1pm and 2-7pm; Tuesdays and Thursdays, 9am-1pm and 2pm-5pm; Wednesdays from 9.30am-1pm and 2-5pm; and on Saturdays from 9am-1pm.

Town ready for lights switch on

Brierley Hill is set for its annual Christmas lights switch on celebration.

The event will take place at the Moor Centre on November 19 from 1pm to 5pm. Free activities will include a Christmas grotto, reindeer, stilt walking, elves, fairground rides, a bouncy castle, face painting and a caricaturist.

Father Christmas will switch on the lights at 5pm.

Jobs boost for region with £3m business cash award

More than 100 jobs are set to be created in Sandwell and Dudley thanks to a £3 million Government cash injection to boost businesses. The money has been secured with support from Sandwell Council and the Black Country Local Enterprise Partnership and will assist four local businesses and one in neighbouring Dudley to expand their business operations.

It followed a submission by the council as part of round two of the Regional Growth Fund.

Council staff in transfer plan

The findings of a report being prepared by Dudley Council as part of plans which could see up to 500 authority staff transferred to a new company set up to carry out repairs on homes are set to go before borough bosses next month.

The council gave the go-ahead in principle earlier this year to establish a new way of providing the repairs and maintenance of the council's housing stock of 23,000 homes with a "joint venture company".

It is designed to deliver a repairs and maintenance service for the council's housing stock. Bosses say it is hoped it will provide "better value for money" by integrating the council's resources with the private sector.

The council also says that it would be able to retain more influence over future service delivery than a traditional tender process would allow and that this would help to ensure services in the future.

Employees within the council's building services division would be employed by the new company in a move which would see their terms and conditions protected, the authority says.

Councillor Adrian Turner, cabinet member for housing, libraries and adult learning, said the council was still working on the plans in an attempt to ensure that the authority got the best value for money deal possible.

"Since cabinet's approval in the summer, we have been carrying out work to determine the scope of the potential contract to ensure the council is safeguarded and is getting best value for money," he said.

Councillor Turner added: "Work is ongoing, and the findings are planned to be reported to cabinet at the end of this year."

The successful businesses are Angle Ring Co Ltd, Tipton; Caparo Precision Strip, West Bromwich; Pargat & Co Ltd, West Bromwich; NDC Polythene Ltd, Old Hill and Thomas Dudley in Dudley.

The money will be shared among the businesses who will generate a further £11m investment themselves.

Sandwell Council said that it expected the investment would create 115 new jobs and safeguard a further 156 posts during the lifetime of the projects.

Future

The five businesses will now have to go through a period where their future plans will be scrutinised by the Department for Business Innovation & Skills prior to final contracts being signed.

Councillor Ian Jones, Sandwell Council's cabinet member for jobs and economy, said: "This is great news for the businesses and great news for Sandwell and the wider Black Country."

"The council is proud of the co-ordinating role it played in pulling the RGF bid together and emphasises Sandwell Council's commitment to work with local businesses."

However, Councillor Jones added the award was just a "drop in the ocean" of cash that used to come to the West Midlands via the Regional Development Agency which the Government has withdrawn.

"It is a fraction of the cash we previously got," he added.

Elevenses for a golden couple

Thomas Woodbine 72 and Marlene Woodbine 68. They met while in the services and will be celebrating their Golden Wedding on 11.11.2011 at 11.00am. Inset on their big day. They were married at Oxford Register Office.

Black Country couple Tom and Marlene Woodbine could never fail to remember their wedding anniversary – it's at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month.

And this time – in the 11th year of the century – it's their golden anniversary.

The Armistice Day link is fitting for a couple who were both in the forces when they met and married after a whirlwind romance.

Tom, now aged 72, and Marlene, 68, of Durham Road, Netherton, did not first realise the significance of the time and date of their wedding, although they knew it was Remembrance Day.

But ever since, when they celebrate their own special anniversary, they spare a thought for those who have lost their lives in war.

"We think it's a miracle that it was such a memorable date and time and the number 11 has figured large in our lives – we often exchange a glance if we spot the clock says 11.11," said Tom, a retired electrician.

RBL club is forced to close

A British Legion club in the Black Country has shut suddenly, just days before Remembrance Sunday.

The Blackheath British Legion Memorial Club, which had been running for around 90 years, has been forced to close due to its inability to cover its rent.

Dwindling numbers at the Powke Lane social club meant staff could not cover payments to the national British Legion office and members voted for it to cease trading.

The British Legion branch however continues to operate and the Remembrance parade on November 13 is expected to attract around 2,500 people.

Wayne Parkes, branch secretary of Blackheath's Royal British Legion said the club had fallen victim to the tough economic conditions. He added: "A special general meeting was called and the members were told the club was no longer financially viable. Over 90 per cent of the voting members present agreed the closure."

Blackheath Councillor Bob Price said: "It's a piece of history that's sad to lose. Obviously the people that used to use it are no longer there and I hate to see places like this disappear."

Meeting of history group

The next meeting of Stourbridge Historical Society will take place on November 17.

Brian Draper will give a talk on Ironbridge and Coalbrookdale at 7.30pm. The meeting will be held in the Ambicote Room at Stourbridge Town Hall. Visitors are welcome.

Harbour safe for youngsters

A care home for young adults in Stourbridge, which has operated without the correct planning permission for eight years, has been allowed to remain open despite a wave of protests.

Under planning laws the Safe Harbour Centre, in Hagley Road, was only allowed to be a residential home for the elderly but it was revealed that guideline had been broken.

The centre had also been home to up to seven young adults with autism – contrary to planning rules for the property.

Members of Dudley Council development control committee unanimously voted in favour of removing conditions which banned the exclusive use of the property for elderly residents at a recent meeting.

But residents say they are furious with the decision, adding they were considering lodging a complaint with the Local Government Ombudsman. Around 300 people had signed a petition in favour of allowing the centre to stay open, although those against said many signatories lived outside the immediate area. They also claimed there were increased parking and noise problems.

A 103-name petition was collected and 44 letters sent to the council opposing the application.

Centre proprietor Geoffrey Copeland told the meeting it would be "distressing" for the young people if they had to be moved. He said he only became aware of the planning regulation earlier this year.

Committee chairman, Councillor Colin Wilson said the provision of 17 off-street car parking spaces would help alleviate the problem.

After the meeting, neighbouring resident Steven Farthing, said: "We will look at complaining to the Ombudsman because I believe they looked at the application emotionally rather than through purely planning guidelines."

Early hours trail for fast food diner

McDonalds can extend its morning opening hours at its Coseley restaurant for a trial period after it was awarded planning permission.

The decision was taken by Dudley Council's development control committee to allow the restaurant a limited extension in the mornings, with a review of the application in six months.

The restaurant, in Birmingham New Road, had applied to the authority to vary its planning conditions, asking for it to open at 5.30am instead of 7am daily. The store already opens until 11pm each night.

But committee members raised fears the restaurant would become a nuisance with customers in their cars pulling up in the early hours.

Instead they agreed to a compromise allowing the restaurant to open at 6am for a six-month trial. They will be reviewed to see what impact it has had on the nearby community.

A petition of 32 signatures from residents opposing the plan had been submitted to the committee ahead of a recent meeting.

Kieran earns his stripes at station

Kieran Graham, 11, of Halesowen, with officers Ian Smith, Mark Devereaux, Steve Franklin, Carl Foster with Falcon and Keiron Davies, with Tito

Schoolboy Kieran Graham was given a taste of life on the beat when he was taken for a spin in a police car.

It was a dream come true for the 11-year-old from Halesowen who wants to be a policeman when he grows up.

The visit to Tipton Police Station was organised by the Wishing Well charity at Russells Hall Hospital in Dudley. Kieran, a pupil at Newfield Park Primary School in Halesowen, spent a few days on the children's ward there in June.

Members launch a church sponsor plan

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

A business plan is being drawn up to help secure the future of a landmark Dudley church which closed eight years ago. The St John's Church Preservation Group wants to launch a sponsorship scheme to restore the building in Kates Hill.

Members are hoping that pledges of funding from business, community groups and individuals will help kick-start the project. It is expected to cost between £150,000 and £200,000 to get it reopened. Then work has to be carried out on the Grade II-listed building to restore it.

The estimate for that has been put at £1million. Campaigners are hoping people will come forward to sponsor the church through donating services or goods that could be used to get the building up and running again.

Chairwoman Deb Brownlee said: "We aim to create the first fully sponsored church building in the UK."

"A full sponsor package is being compiled including the creation of executive sponsor only area within the building."

Disturbance

"This way we can fund and restore St John's Church without any disturbance of historic fabric other than for essential redecoration, re-wiring and installation of amenities."

Meanwhile, the group is appealing for anyone interested in saving St John's Church to go online and complete a survey at the website.

Suggestions on uses of the building will be used to help determine its future.

They are also looking for individuals, sports clubs and other groups who may want to use the building for their regular activities.

The link can be found on www.oakhamresearch.com and www.savestjohnchurch.zoomshare.com and surveys need to be filled in by November 18.

Anyone interesting in getting involved in the sponsorship scheme can call 07871 195042.

The church is where bare-knuckle fighter William Perry, known as the Tipton Slasher, is buried. It opened in 1840 and was listed by English Heritage in 2009.

It was closed because of safety fears although recent surveys have shown the building is not in as bad a condition as first thought.

Group weighs in for charity

Slimming World leader Michaela Mucklow presents £300 to Mary Stevens Hospice's Janet Jones, with the weight-loss group at Lutley Community Centre in Halesowen

Slimmers from weight-loss groups in the Black Country have piled on the pounds with a charity ball raising cash for Mary Stevens Hospice.

A total of £300 was raised by members of Slimming World groups in Halesowen and Stourbridge at a Vegas-themed awards ball honouring winners in the Woman of the Year and Biggest Loser categories.

The money from the event, which featured raffles, silent auctions and a donation bucket, was presented to the Stourbridge-based charity yesterday.

Slimming World leader

Michaela Mucklow, who runs two groups, said the event, held at the Copthorne Hotel in Brierley Hill in September, had been such a success they were now planning to hold a similar awards ceremony every year.

"Everyone was in high spirits and giving generously," she said.

"We asked all the members which charity they would want the money to go to and Mary Stevens Hospice, being a local one, came out top. It was lovely handing out so many awards to people who have come along to group to turn their health around and lose weight."

Residents' anger on sites plan

Impassioned pleas were made to throw out proposals for a gypsy site in a "deprived and forgotten" area of Kidderminster where residents have been working hard to improve their surroundings.

Members of the Broadwaters Residents Action Group (Brag) and other local people spoke out at a public consultation meeting called by Wyre Forest District Council about plans for a gypsy and traveller site with 10 pitches at the site of the former Sion Hill School. Up to 170 people attended the meeting.

Sarah Rook, chairman of Brag, said: "We are in a ward in one of the 10 per cent most deprived areas - with high crime and low attainment. We believe we are the forgotten estate and are fighting hard to change this.

"We would like the site to be the new Wyre Forest special school or a training centre - education is what it should be used for."

Resident John Bennett, of Upton Road, said he knew of someone living near the former school whose home had dropped in value from £140,000 to £80,000 as a result of the gypsy site plan. "You will be devaluing people's lives by 40 per cent - it's an absolute disgrace," he said.

Brag member Bev Royal told the meeting, held at Wolverley Memorial Hall, there was no room at local schools or doctors' practices to cope with travellers.

Wyre Forest District Councillor for Broadwaters, Howard Martin, said: "If the site at Sion Hill isn't developed suitably for the local community the area will go back into decline."

Wyre Forest Council says it needs to create a total of 43 extra pitches by 2022, as well as a site for travelling showpeople. The council is asking for views on sites for gypsy pitches including Manor Farm, St John's Road, the Gables Yard, Saiwen and land adjacent Nunn's Corner, all in Stourport.

MP in bid to launch debate

A Black Country MP has led a backbench debate in Parliament on NHS care of the elderly.

Margot James, MP for Stourbridge called the debate after the Care Quality Commission's recent report, based on unannounced visits to hospitals throughout England, revealed concerns in standards of care for elderly patients. Some 20 per cent of hospitals were identified as failing to meet their legal requirements on care.

During the debate Ms James called for nurses to spend more time on the ward during their training. She also asked Paul Burstow, the Minister for Care Services, to meet with the Nursing and Midwifery Council to discuss how best to take this idea forward.

Mr Burstow replied that he would discuss the matter with the minister responsible for nursing, Anne Milton.

Ms James said afterwards: "For a long time research has confirmed the failings in our care of older people without effective action being taken to remedy it or to reduce the problem."

Ced pitches in to restore caravan

Work is nearly complete on a replica Gypsy caravan that was just moments away from being destroyed in a fire at a Midland museum.

Volunteer Ced Lewis, aged 82, had spent about 400 hours on the project over three years at the County Museum in Hartlebury Castle, near Kidderminster.

The two-thirds size wooden caravan, called Bita Rawni - Romani for "the little princess" - was dragged to safety by firefighters as a blaze tore through a workshop earlier this month.

Replaced

Some of the intricate paintwork was damaged and two inside doors had to be replaced but Mr Lewis, of Penn, Wolverhampton, said it could have been "so much worse". He added: "The flames were literally yards away - a few more moments and the caravan would have been a pile of ash. I was upset the paintwork was spoiled but I am so grateful to the fire crews that saved it."

Mr Lewis, a retired engineer, hopes to put the caravan on display to visitors early next year.

Rousing start to festive countdown

IT'S sure to be a rousing start to the festive period. The Tattoo will feature 1,000 of the best military musicians and performers from across Europe and the UK.

And we've teamed up with the people at Birmingham's NIA to offer nine readers the chance to win a pair of tickets to the Birmingham International Christmas Tattoo being held in December.

For the first time the Norwegian King's Guard Band and their drill team will be present, joining the world-famous Band and Drums of Her Majesty's Royal Marines and the Corps of Drums of the Yorkshire Volunteers.

Gymnastic

Joining them will be the Band of the Liberation army from The Netherlands and the cream of British youth with the National Youth Marching Band.

The Tattoo is due to be held at the NIA on Saturday, December 10 at 6pm and Sunday, December 11 at 2pm and you can win tickets for the Saturday evening performance.

On top of all the musical mastery, there will be a dazzling gymnastic display from the Blue Falcons Gymnastic Display Team. The Inter-Service Field Gun Competition will bring their heavy guns to the arena along with the massed standard bearers from the Royal British Legion and there will be a dog display.

Finale

The performance will end with a spectacular festive finale featuring all the 1,000 performers.

Tickets are on sale now, priced at £22.50, £20, 18.50, £16.50 and £14.50 plus booking and transaction fees and are available online at www.theticketfactory.com or by calling 0844 338 8000.

More information on the Tattoo can be found at www.birminghamtattoo.co.uk

Tattoo features 1,000 of best military musicians

HOW TO ENTER

To stand a chance of winning simply answer the following question:

What is the name of the gymnastics display team?

Send your answer on a postcard with your name, address and contact number (only one entry per household) to Tattoo Competition, Chronicle series (editorial), 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES.

Closing date: Thursday, November 17. Usual rules apply. Editor's decision is final.

Fire services pay out £200,000

Fire services in West Midlands and Staffordshire paid out more than £200,000 asking for advice from consultants, new figures reveal.

Experts were brought in to help in areas such as IT, website design, health and safety and purchasing between January 2010 and September 2011. The spending – totalling £212,097 – comes as bosses at both brigades try to shave millions of pounds off their budgets for the next four years.

Around £149,600 was spent on outside help from consultancy firms by Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service during the 18 month period, while the bill for West Midlands Fire Service was £62,497. The spending in Staffordshire included £59,477 on employing an equality and diversity consultant. And around £24,517 was paid out on business expertise, although this was later reimbursed by Improvement and Efficiency for West Midlands.

Director of organisational development at Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service, Becci Bryant said the spending equated to approximately 0.2 per cent of the service's total budget.

"There are occasions when we require the services of consultants. This is usually because we don't have the expertise in a certain area or we require the services of an independent party. Decisions to employ consultants are not taken lightly and ensuring we receive good value for money is always at the forefront of our minds," she said.

Among the spending by West Midlands Fire Service was around £9,300 paid out to human resources firm Howard Parvin Personnel Consultancy and £1,600 to IT firm UC4 Ltd.

Chairman of West Midlands Fire and Rescue Authority John Edwards said: "The Fire Authority has a good reputation as an efficient and effective value-for-money organisation and our limited use of external consultancy support on a very limited basis is evidence of this."

Offender list on the increase

The number of people added to the sex offender list in Worcestershire, Shropshire and Herefordshire almost doubled in the last year.

Courts across the area covered by West Mercia Police imposed 77 Sexual Offence Prevention Orders (SOPOs) over the 12 months leading up to March 31 – up from 41 the year before. The figures are revealed in the annual report of West Mercia Multi Agency Public Protection Arrangements (MAPPA).

The report details how the police work with other criminal justice agencies to protect the public from known offenders, such as the 792 registered sex offenders in the area – as of March 31 – 249 violent offenders and 10 other criminals labelled as "dangerous".

Detective Superintendent Martin Lakeman, head of public protection for West Mercia Police, said: "Over the past 12 months agencies have worked effectively together to manage those that pose the greatest risk."

Museum fun is out of this world

Visitors to a Black Country attraction have been hunting for aliens and creating their own spaceship as part of events taking place during the half-term holiday.

Staff at the Red House Glass Cone, in Wordsley, organised activities to keep youngsters and their families entertained during the week.

Visitors had to find alien spaceships hidden around the site.

The cone then hosted its No Tricks, Just Treats where youngsters were able to take part in a pottery workshop.

Experts created witches hats and ghosts from glass and a children's entertainer put on magic shows.

Visitors previously had the chance to make their own glass tiles which were completed by experts at the site ready to collect.

The Red House Glass Cone, High Street, Wordsley, is open every day, 10am to 4pm. Admission is free.

£1 deal secures the future of light festival

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

A popular waterways festival in Brierley Hill has been saved after an events company offered a £1 fee to take it on.

Staffordshire-based CCEM has struck a deal with Dudley Council to buy the rights to host the annual Festival of Water and Light at the Waterfront.

The event attracts more than 12,000 people every year.

Boating enthusiasts were left disappointed when this year's event was cancelled last month due to funding difficulties – but CCEM, based in Tamworth, has agreed to take on full responsibility for all future events.

Council leader Les Jones due to formally sign off the agreement on Tuesday – and he has welcomed the deal as “good news” for the popular event.

“The problem was, when times are tough like they are now, sponsorship for events like this is more difficult to come by,” he said. “This meant the council had to make up the difference – and in the current climate that is unsustainable.

“So I took the decision to cancel this year's event.

Fantastic

“Fortunately, CCEM are willing to take it on themselves and although it's too late for this year it can now continue next year, which is fantastic.

He said an Asset Purchase Agreement was now being drawn up with CCEM, which has collaborated with the council to hold the event for the past four years, with a nominal payment of £1 to the council.

Boating enthusiast Paddy Grice, who helped organise a last-minute replacement festival when this year's was cancelled, also welcomed the news. “I am very glad that this event will be able to go forward – the reason we staged the event was to keep the date in the diary and show there is still interest there,” he said.

“CCEM have done wonderfully in previous years and I'm confident we are in safe hands for future events.”

Pensioner's peak challenge

Allen Birch, aged 91, and friend Andrea Clarke, both of Bewdley, with Help For Heroes county co-ordinator Ian Baldry

Sprightly pensioner Allen Birch has handed over more than £3,000 to armed forces charity Help for Heroes after conquering Snowdon.

The 91-year old great-grandfather, a former soldier in the Royal Engineers, was congratulated on his “tremendous effort”.

It is the fourth time Mr Birch, of Wribbenhall, Bewdley, has tackled the 3,560ft mountain since his 86th birthday.

Previous outings have raised thousands for Bewdley Scouts, the town's Methodist Church and Kidderminster Hospital. This time he generated £3,320 in sponsorship and is planning his next climb in 2012, which will be in aid of the Midlands Air Ambulance.

Mr Birch said: “I think it is a really important charity.” He served during the Second World War in Hamburg and Egypt, building bridges and clearing mines.

Ian Baldry, Worcestershire county co-ordinator for the charity, visited Mr Birch's home to collect the cheque and thank him.

Savers turning to building societies

dudleychrons@expressandstar.co.uk

People in the West Midlands are turning to building societies to look after their savings as the ongoing financial crisis continues to bite hard.

People choosing to place their savings in building societies rose at the start of the cash crisis as confidence in banks plummeted.

And bosses from the region's leading societies said it was a trend which had continued as savers continued to deposit large sums and new members open accounts.

Bosses from the Tipton and Coseley Building Society said residents had placed around £4.5 million savings with them in August alone – compared with £1.3m at the same time last year. Officials said the sum was close to the record amount residents saved with the society in July 2010 of £5.9m.

Building society chief executive Chris Martin said: "The £4.5m amount is the total figure after withdrawals and other transactions have been carried out. It shows people have faith in building societies as a safe pair of hands for their money. The point is that from the beginning the money does not belong to the society but its members."

Security

"The main priority is to protect that money and ensure it is looked after on behalf of members. It is about providing security at a challenging time."

Savings in Dudley Building Society rose by more than £7 million over the last year. At this stage in 2010, there was £284,089,000 saved in the building society, and this has increased to £291,340,000.

Chief executive Geoff Caves said the firm had not been actively promoting any offers but said the increase was "very positive". He said: "People want to save when there's a downturn because they want to be prepared for the impact it could have on them."

Bosses from the West Bromwich said they were unable to provide figures for over the last few months for a comparison as they were in a closed period ahead of its half-year results.

But they said 29,500 new savers had joined the society during the last financial year placing the total membership at nearly 540,000.

Divisional director for the society Stephen Leonard said: "Our savings products have appeared in the best buy tables more than 900 times this year so far, which helps members during a time of sustained economic difficulty."

Louise Holmes, spokeswoman for financial information company MoneyFacts, said: "In the savings account market, building societies offer some of the more competitive rates compared to the banks."

Walk is just the ticket

Bus driver Dave Gerrard and Dudley Group of Hospitals fundraiser Karen Phillips celebrate £1,250 being raised

Bus drivers have handed over £1,250 to a Dudley hospital. The cash was raised by walking one of their usual routes.

The colleagues, joined by family and friends, traced the eight-mile 246 bus route from Dudley bus station to Stourbridge town centre to help raise money for the children's unit at Russells Hall Hospital.

It was organised by driver Dave Gerrard, aged 67, who is based at Pensnett depot and persuaded his National Express colleagues to get involved.

Mr Gerrard, who lives in Amblecote and drives on a number of routes around Dudley, gave a cheque to staff from the unit when they visited the garage.

He said: "We're really pleased with how much we have raised and we are already planning to do it again next year."

They managed to complete the walk in just over two hours. The money raised will help pay for overnight beds needed for parents to stay with their children when they are poorly.

THE WAY I SEE IT

Dedication of centre staff is so impressive

I visited Netherton Park Children's Centre to meet with principal Helen Ruffles and I was hugely impressed with the facilities and the enthusiasm and dedication of the staff. The centre really is helping to give a great start in life to so many local children.

During my travels I also visited Janan Meat, Kingswinford where I was interested to learn about the rapid growth in un-stunned ritual slaughter in UK abattoirs. Janan pre-stun their animals but there is now a great deal of un-stunned, ritually slaughtered meat in our food chain.

I believe consumers should be informed about the method of slaughter used so they can make an informed choice about the kind of meat they wish to buy and consume.

I was pleased to receive a 50-strong group from Dudley in Parliament. The group travelled to Parliament by coach from Kingswinford Conservative Club and arrived in time to watch Prime Minister's Questions in a Parliamentary committee room.

Following PMQs I joined the group for a wide ranging question and answer session before we were joined by Nick Herbert MP, Minister of State for Policing and Criminal Justice.

The group had the chance to hear from and question a leading minister about his wide-ranging brief before I included a tour of Parliament including historic Westminster Hall.

Tickets

gates from companies such as Warburtons, JCB and Clark's, to discuss how the Government can do more to help the UK's family businesses through these tough economic times.

It is a little known fact that four people in every 10 working in the private sector work in a family business. Family businesses are the backbone of the UK economy.

Family businesses account for:

● two thirds of the total 4.5 million private sector enterprises in the UK economy – that's 3 million businesses

● more than 40 per cent of private sector employment, providing jobs to 9.5 million people – one job in three throughout the UK

● a very large contribution to the UK economy, accounting for more than 30 per cent of GDP

Television personality Gethin Jones launched The Royal British Legion's 2011 Poppy Appeal on Thursday 27th October as the UK's leading Armed Forces charity announced a £40 million fundraising goal in its most ambitious campaign ever.

To mark its 90th anniversary year, the Legion launched its Poppy Appeal under the slogan of standing "shoulder to shoulder with all who serve." The theme is backed by an online campaign and a chart-destined official single recorded by Robin Gibb and The Soldiers.

Holding Out For A Hero presenter Gethin Jones said: "I'm honoured to be launching the Poppy Appeal. I've experienced first-hand what life is like for our brave Service men and women on operations and how much the British public's support means to them.

"They risk so much for us every single day. I ask everyone to throw their support behind the Appeal and to wear their poppy with pride."

The Poppy Appeal raises funds needed to support those currently serving in Afghanistan, veterans of past conflict and their families.

The Legion unveiled a major social media campaign (shouldertoshoulder.org.uk) to capture public support and encouragement for British Armed Forces. Members of the public are encouraged to pin a poppy to an online photograph, add a message of support, and place it alongside thousands of others on an interactive wall.

"Of course, everyone who wears the paper poppy is also standing shoulder to shoulder," said Legion Director of Fundraising Russell Thompson OBE. "It doesn't really matter whether you wear your poppy on the street or online - just so long as you wear your poppy with pride."

The Royal British Legion: The Royal British Legion stands shoulder to shoulder with all who serve. It is the nation's leading Armed Forces charity providing care and support to all members of the British Armed Forces past and present and their families. It is also the national Custodian of Remembrance and safeguards the Military Covenant between the nation and its Armed Forces. It is best known for the annual Poppy Appeal and its emblem, the red poppy. www.britishlegion.org.uk

Each year the nation expresses its unequivocal support for The Royal British Legion's charity work through the Poppy Appeal, emphasising the need to help the Afghan generation of the Armed Forces and their families - today and for the rest of their lives.

The annual Poppy Appeal is the Legion's major fundraising campaign and their aim this year is to surpass last year's total and raise £40 million. This will allow the Legion to continue the work that means so much to the thousands of serving and ex-Service people and their families, who approach the charity every year for help. They reached their target of £36 million for 2010.

The Legion helps people of all ages, providing financial, social and emotional help to all those who have been affected by conflict. Increasingly they see younger people coming to them for help. Beneficiaries range from children to widows, from single mothers to pensioners, in fact anyone who finds themselves in need of help. Some 9.5 million people are eligible to approach us for support.

The Poppy Appeal distributes around 45 million poppies, 100,000 wreaths and sprays and 750,000 Little Remembrance Crosses. These items are made at the Legion's Poppy Factory in Richmond, Surrey.

There are many ways to support The Poppy Appeal either individually or as a company. And now you can show your support digitally - by email, on your mobile and on Facebook.

Colonel John McCrae

At the launch, The Soldiers performed the official Poppy Appeal song for 2011, I've Gotta Get a Message to You, recorded with pop legend Robin Gibb.

Robin, who wrote the chart-topping single with his brothers Barry and Maurice of the Bee Gees in 1968, said the single is a "moving tribute to our serving personnel who lay their lives on the line for our country every day."

"Although the song was not written all those years back about soldiers, it can represent the human emotions of Servicemen - or in this case, a single soldier," he added. "It's about being trapped in a corner far from home, brave but scared and thinking of loved ones. These men and women deserve our respect and support."

FOR CAVITY WALL AND LOFT INSULATION

Save up to a 1/3rd on your heating bills

SCHEME 1

This scheme is aimed at ordinary working people who are outside the benefit system and is not a means tested grant. The price you pay is based on property type and represents a real saving of at least 60% on the cost of cavity wall insulation. Prices quoted below are what you actually pay. We do all the necessary paperwork and claim the excess amount from the utility companies direct leaving you with a warm house at a fraction of the normal cost, which is £500 - £700 per property.

Loft Insulation is normally £300 - £400.

Cavity wall insulation from only £99

Loft insulation from £149

BENEFIT HOLDERS SCHEME 2 - FREE

If you or your partner are in receipt of a qualifying benefit then you will receive loft or cavity wall insulation totally free of charge!

Applicable benefits include - Income support, Pension Credit, Council Tax Benefit, IBJSA, Disability Living Allowance, Attendance Allowance, ESA, Working Tax and Child Tax Credit*

* Benefit bases with income less than £16,190

SCHEME 3 - OVER 70'S FREE

If you or anyone permanently living in your house is over 70 years of age then you will receive cavity wall insulation totally free of charge. If your loft insulation is below 60mm in depth then this could also be topped up free as well. This is not means tested in any way shape or form!!!

Need your loft insulating but full of storage?

We now offer a loft clearance service from as little as £25

Limited availability on all grants - first come first served

Don't miss out - get it while it is still funded

Kate's festive folk gig at Civic

ONE of the brightest stars of the English contemporary folk scene, Kate Rusby, will be performing songs from her second album of Yorkshire-inspired songs and Christmas carols at Wolverhampton Civic Hall on Thursday, December 15.

She will be joined by her band and a brass quintet for her festive concert, drawing upon the new album While Mortals Sleep, interpreting traditional songs from her native county and performing self-penned material.

The new band will include Damien O'Kane on guitar and banjo, Duncan Lyle on double bass, Edmund Boyle guitar and bouzouki, and Julian Sutton on melodeon. Tickets cost £20 (£12 under-16s). See www.wolvlescivic.co.uk or call the box office on 0870 320 7000.

Folk singer Kate Rusby

THE UK's number one selling classical vocal group, Mediaeval Baebes, has announced a nine-date tour of England in December, which will include a show at Birmingham Cathedral on Tuesday, December 20.

This outing will continue the tradition of the Mediaeval Baebes' annual Christmas tour. As a festive season gift to fans, the singers will be releasing the first single from their forthcoming album The Huntress, Veni Veni Bella as a free download with accompanying video in December.

Originally formed in 1996, the Mediaeval Baebes line up consists of musical director Katharine Blake alongside Sutton Coldfield woman Esther Dee, Emily Alice Ovenden, Bev Lee Harling, Sarah Kayte Foster, Clare Edmondson and Tanya Jackson. See www.mediaevalbaebes.com for tickets, from £12.50 to £18.50.

TEN years on from his Pop Idol triumph, Will Young is a multi-platinum selling singer and actor and has released his fifth studio album Echoes, including the hit Jealousy and new single Come On.

He will be in concert at Birmingham's O2 Academy on Sunday, November 20, with support from up-and-coming new band Lawson. See www.o2academybirmingham.co.uk.

Other gigs to look out for include indie rockers The Pigeon Detectives at the O2 Academy 2 on Tuesday; quirky dub from Dreadzone at the Hare and Hounds (07531 723043) in Kings Heath on Thursday, November 17; and 2 Tone veterans The Beat and The Selector urging folks to Twist and Crawl at Birmingham Town Hall (call 0121 780 3333) on November 18.

Official return of the 'Great Detective'

Sherlock Holmes returns in The House of Silk, the first Holmes novel approved by the estate of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

SIR Arthur Conan Doyle's great detective, Sherlock Holmes, is back in the first novel actually commissioned by the author's estate, The House of Silk (hardback, Orion, £18.99) by Anthony Horowitz.

Of course, Holmes is a master of the comeback. Conan Doyle apparently first killed him off when Holmes and his nemesis the criminal mastermind Professor Moriarty, plunged into the Reichenbach Falls in The Final Solution, first published in the Strand Magazine in 1893 and later included in The Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes. However, so great was the outcry that the Scottish writer brought him back for another series of adventures, and Holmes was eventually to die in retirement on the South Downs having finally found time for his hobby of beekeeping.

The final collection of Holmes stories, The Case-Book of Sherlock Holmes, was published in 1927, three years before the author's death.

There have, of course, been lots of stories in print and on screen involving Holmes and his friend and biographer Dr John Watson since then, but this is the first work to be added to the official canon by Conan Doyle's estate. It comes at a time when the iconic detective has never been more popular, the two most recent manifestations of his enduring appeal being Guy Ritchie's actionman movie version and Steven Moffat and Mark Gatiss' more cerebral and stylish 21st century updating in a BBC TV drama.

But the elementary question remains, is it any good? The answer is an emphatic yes. The estate chose wisely in Horowitz who, though he is best known as a children's author for his hugely successful Alex Rider adventures, was the screenwriter who adapted Agatha Christie's fastidious Belgian detective Hercule Poirot for television.

The House of Silk is full of references that Holmes aficionados will recognise and enjoy but it is also a cracking crime mystery in its own right.

The set-up is the discovery of a manuscript, 100 years after the death of Holmes, which is Watson's account of a case so controversial and shocking that it could not be published.

So the game is afoot, again. An apparently straightforward case of an Irish-American ruffian seeking revenge on a London art dealer, because he was named alongside the millionaire who put trigger-happy Pinkerton agents on his gang's trail, proves to be more complex. When one of Holmes' Baker Street Irregulars, the street urchins who act as his eyes and ears in the criminal underworld, is brutally murdered Holmes vows to bring the mysterious House of Silk to justice.

Horowitz suggests Conan Doyle's style without copying it (that could risk parody) and his descriptions are sometimes more detailed than those that Conan Doyle would give. He also omits the original author's more archaic turns of phrase. Often Conan Doyle's stories feature long periods of dialogue that read like a script whereas Horowitz creates a richly atmospheric London of fog, poverty and lurking evil.

It is easy to deduce which book crime fiction fans should be reading this winter.

Anthony Horowitz: the author who adapted Agatha Christie's Hercule Poirot for television has now created a new adventure for Sherlock Holmes

WEST END BREAKS

Choose your show, price band* and how you want to travel

Coach inclusive breaks

Selected weekend departures FROM £124.95 (Saturday Night)
FROM £129.95 (Dine and Dance)

Take in a top West End show and have some free time in London for shopping and sightseeing. For the Dine and Dance option see the matinee performance before heading back to the hotel for dinner and disco (conditions apply). For the Saturday Night option you will see the evening performance. For both breaks the price includes a theatre ticket, overnight stay in a four-star outer London hotel, with full English breakfast (plus dinner for Dine and Dance options). Pick ups are from Dudley, Shrewsbury, Telford, Walsall and Wolverhampton.

Rail inclusive breaks

Departures most weekends FROM £129.95

Catch the Theatre Express and enjoy a super two-day weekend break in the capital. There's a choice of London hotels and your ticket is for a Saturday evening performance. Rail travel is standard class with the option to upgrade. Depart Saturday morning/early afternoon from Birmingham New Street, Sandwell and Dudley, Stafford or Wolverhampton, returning on the Sunday afternoon/early evening to give plenty of free time for shopping and sightseeing. Stay the Friday evening too for an additional cost.

Self-drive breaks

Departures most weekends FROM £89.95 (Friday Night)
FROM £99.95 (Saturday Night)

The self-drive break is for one evening staying either on the Friday night or Saturday night in a four-star hotel. You will see the evening performance: for Friday night you will have a top price ticket and for Saturday evening there is a choice of price bands. Stay extra nights for a reasonable supplement (subject to availability).

* The "from" price and price bands vary for each show - see brochure for details. Single room supplements apply.

Crossover success – Nissan is celebrating the sale of more than 100,000 Jukes in just one year in Europe

Nissan is breaking the mould with prototype

IF YOU really want the 3.0-litre twin-turbo Nissan GT-R but need something smaller and more practical like the company's Juke compact crossover, your problems could be over with the announcement of a special prototype dubbed the Juke-R.

It sees the 450bhp engine from the GT-R shoe-horned into the Juke chassis to create a car that school-run mums and man-racers alike can love to bits.

Even better, the car is fully road legal and not just a pipe dream.

Don't get your hopes up too soon, though, because the Juke-R won't see production. It's just a bit of mischief that Nissan is getting up to alongside motor-sports outfit RML.

The drivetrain and much of the interior equipment of the GT-R has been modified and adapted to fit the Juke's dimensions, but the Juke's distinctive centre console inspired by a motorcycle fuel tank stays put.

Exciting

Firmly engaged in corporate mode, Nissan's senior vice president of sales and marketing in Europe, Paul Wilcox said: "The Nissan Juke is one of the most exciting cars on the market today.

"Its bold crossover design has captured the imagination of car buyers all over Europe; after just a year on sale we are celebrating sales of more than 100,000 units.

"The Juke lends itself perfectly to a sports derivative and Juke-R explores that territory.

"Equally at home, on road and track, the Juke-R showcases two of the most exciting cars in our range and highlights the technical innovation that drives Nissan.

"This car will more than live up to the dynamic driving experience we engineer into all our cars."

Don't risk lives – keep tyres safe

CONVICTIONS laid down in court for driving on defective tyres are at a four-year high, according to the latest statistics from the Home Office.

In 2010, 10,475 motorists were convicted of the offence, almost 1,000 more than in 2009.

The figures seem to indicate that as budgets tighten at home, drivers are putting off buying replacement tyres until they have passed beyond the legal minimum.

The law states that car tyres must have at least 1.6mm of tread across three-quarters of the width of the tyre and all the way around the circumference.

Most new tyres come with around 8mm of tread when new, so the difference in the respective performance of old and new tyres, especially in the wet, is significant.

Potential

Even though the penalty for driving on tyres below the legal limit is up to £2,500 per tyre, as well as a mandatory three points per tyre endorsement on your driving licence, the potential alternative of serious accident could be far, far worse.

Stuart Jackson, chairman of TyreSafe, a non-profit organisation dedicated to highlighting the dangers of over-worn or damaged tyres, says: "These latest figures are very worrying indeed and show that the courts take a very dim view of people driving on defective tyres.

"We are aware that with

Drivers are putting off buying new tyres while money is tight recent financial pressures, many motorists are delaying the purchase of new tyres. However, as these latest figures show, some are waiting far too long and are risking their own safety and that of other roads users by going beyond the legal minimum standards."

Victory takes Old Hales to top of the league

Mark Curzon in action

Finchfield 1 OHHC 1st XI 4

Old Halesians 1st XI Hockey Team rolled to a 4-1 victory over Finchfield, with four different scorers. The win puts Hales joint league leaders in the MRHA ENER-G West Midlands Premier Division.

Hales travelled to Finchfield knowing that only a win was acceptable and some exceptional play from the squad meant the visiting team dominated for the majority of the game. Both teams started the game patiently, but it was Hales who opened the scoring. Following a progressive build up, the ball was driven down the right by Ben Hughes, who fired the ball across the 'D' to striker Tom Bulteel who flicked the ball into the net for a 1-0 lead.

Old Hales never looked back and soon doubled their lead when another well-worked move down the right flank led to a goal.

The ball was passed inside to Paul Harrold who found Harry Hughes in the 'D'. Hughes easily put the ball into the goal to double the visitors lead. At 2-0, Hales did not step off the gas and continued their assault on the Finchfield defence. Marc Herickx had his shot saved by the Finchfield GK, but Josh Randhawa was on hand to put the ball into the net, to make it 3-0 at the half time break.

In the second half, Hales continued where they left off with pressure on the home side's goal. Some good defending prevented Hales from extending their lead early on.

However, it was only a matter of time before the visitors grabbed their fourth goal of the game. The goal was surrounding by some controversy following a Hales penalty corner.

The ball appeared to deflect off the body of Paul Woodall and into the back of the goal, but the umpire saw no infringement and allowed it. With a 4-0 lead, Old Halesians kept their composure and were allowed long periods of possession.

Finchfield gained a consolation goal when a momentary lack of concentration from captain Doug Houghton saw him yellow carded for not retreating five metres.

The resulting penalty corner was saved by GK James Jones, but the Finchfield striker reacted first to the loose ball and flicked it past a helpless defence. Despite the best efforts of man of the match Mark Curzon, the ball found its way over the goal line.

Hales will hope to continue their good form as they host Sikh Union (Coventry) on Saturday at Great Park, Rubery.

OHHC 2nd XI 1 Worcester 3

It was a tale of penalty corners as Old Hales 2nd XI lost 3-1 to top of the table Worcester.

Hales started brightly and dominated the first 10 minutes with slick passing and movement, but they could not take advantage of the numerous penalty corners they won early on.

Worcester grew into the game and won a penalty corner which was converted despite keeper Steve Charlton getting a stick to the ball. This knocked some confidence out of the Hales side and they struggled for the rest of the half to keep possession, as Worcester scored from a further penalty corner before the break.

Hales were second best for most of the second half. Nick Truelove went close with a one-on-one, but Worcester grabbed another goal from a penalty corner. Hales rallied back and got a consolation goal as Mark Rigby struck home from a penalty corner on the final whistle.

Stratford 3 OHHC 3rd XI 1

Old Halesians 3rd XI were unlucky in defeat against an experienced Stratford side. Hales started well when James Bailey found the net after slipping the ball under the Stratford keeper. Unfortunately, that was as good as it got for the relatively inexperienced Hales side who struggled throughout the rest of the game. Stratford were able to draw level and extend their lead into the 2nd half. Hales were disappointed with their 3-1 loss, and will look forward to the next game against Khalsa.

OHHC 4th XI 6 Old Wulfrunians 0

Old Halesians 4th XI easily defeated a visiting Old Wulfrunians side. Hales striker, Mellor opened the scoring, and a second soon followed from Harrold. Mellor doubled his tally before half time. Gurmin made it 4-0 for the home side, before Jones grabbed a fifth. Harrold then grabbed his brace before the final whistle in a convincing 6-0 victory.

Sutton 5 OHHC 5th XI 2

Old Halesians 5th XI were unfortunate in their 5-2 defeat. Sutton were just too strong for the Hales side. The two goals for the visitors came from youngster Josh Thomas.

OHHC Ladies 2 Harborne 1

Old Halesians Ladies held out for a 2-1 win over visitors Harborne. In a close game. Hales were able to ensure the three points to keep the team comfortably mid-table.

OHHC Badgers 4 Wednesbury 1

Old Halesians Badgers comfortably won 4-1 over local rivals Wednesbury in a highly contested fixture.

Sweet success for Hawks both home and away

GIRLS LEAGUE

Halas Hawks 4 Ferndale Colts 0

A very assured performance by the U16 girls saw them take all three points against Ferndale. The visitors started strongly and had a number of corners but the Halas defence held firm. The scoring began with Lauren Taylor netting direct from a corner followed by a brace from Kate Drew and a terrific 30-yard strike from Liz McAlenean. The second half was seen out with goalkeeper Olivia Woolams rarely in trouble. Player of the match was Charlotte Little.

BOYS LEAGUE

Halas Hawks West 2 Sedgley White Lions 0

This was a pulsating U9s cup game which saw a stalemate in the first half, but the second half exploded into life when Jayke Adams netted from a narrow angle. The Sedgley goalkeeper pulled off some tremendous saves but Anthony Andreou put Halas through to the next round with a smash into the roof of the net. The entire team was awarded the man of the match award.

Sedgley White Lions 0 Halas Hawks East 3

The U10s East travelled to Sedgley White Lions and progressed in the cup with a good 3-0 victory. Halas started brightly and took the lead with a tremendous long range Oliver Miller strike into the top right hand corner. Halas continued to press and scored again with a nice left foot finish from Charlie Greening who also forced a third goal after a corner was put in their own net by Sedgley. Man of the match awards went to Oliver Miller and Charlie Greening.

Kingsley Olympic 0 Halas Hawks 6

The U12s had a comfortable win over Kingsley Olympic with goals from Mohamed Yafai (2), Adam Bowen (2), Jonty Round and Matthew Evans. Man of the match went to Mohammed Mohamed.

Halas Hawks 3 Trysull Tigers West 2

The U13s progressed in the league cup with a hard-fought victory over a determined Trysull side. Halas started well and their pressure soon told with an early goal through Nathan Postin. Trysull drew level but Halas regained the lead through Callum Hudson. The second half saw Halas on top for long spells and they extended their lead with a goal from Josh Bernard. Trysull pulled one back and were on top towards the end but Halas held on for a 3-2 win.

Thimblemill Vipers 3 Halas Hawks 4

The U14s took the lead three times against Thimblemill Vipers only to see their opponents draw level on each occasion. Liam Holmes got two and Michael Eaton scored from the penalty spot and it was Eaton again who scored the vital match-winning fourth goal which earned him the man of the match award.

Wombourne 1 Halas Hawks 3

The U15s East recorded back to back wins after coming from behind to beat Wombourne 3-1. After a lacklustre first half, Hawks burst into gear early in the second half through a neat Josh March finish. Dan Willetts then added two more goals to his impressive tally for the season as Hawks finished the match as deserved 3-1 winners.

Halas Hawks 9 Oldswinford 0

A lively start to this U17s game saw the Halas lads take an early lead and then slowly worked up through the gears to go into half time break at 4-0 up. Again starting strongly in the second half, the boys played flowing football right up to the final whistle scoring a further five goals giving the team a well-deserved 9-0 win. Goal scorers were Mitch Webb (2), Alex Chappell (2), Kieran Hillsdon (2), Matt Ross, Scott Pope and Tom Stevens.

HALAS HAWKS LADIES

Santiago Belles 0 Halas Ladies 4

Halas Hawks Ladies travelled to Santiago Belles in the Open Cup and made hard work of their 4-0 win. Despite having most of the possession, they scored only one goal in the first half through Gemma Colledge.

The second half saw continuous pressure from Halas and two further goals from Colledge and one from Tash Berry put Halas through.

DK reach cup semi as game is forfeited

DUDLEY KINGSWINFORD progressed to the semi finals of the North Midlands Cup without even taking to the field on Saturday (5).

Opponents Hereford did not have enough players to name a full side and therefore forfeited the tie.

DK are back in action on Saturday (12) at 2.15pm when they host Malvern in a league fixture at Heathbrook.

KIDDERMINSTER 2 TAMWORTH 0

FIRST-HALF goals from Lee Vaughan and Steve Guinan gave Harriers a timely boost after their bitterly disappointing exit from the FA Cup.

Vaughan converted an early penalty before Guinan hit the target to get Harriers' stuttering campaign back on track.

Their well-earned victory lifted them into eighth place in the Blue Square Bet Premier table, four points adrift of the play-off zone.

The win came after boss Steve Burr rang the changes following his side's dismal 4-1 FA Cup fourth qualifying round replay defeat at lower-graded Corby Town last week.

Burr's assistant Gary Whild said: "After the week we've had all the lads wanted to put things right. They did that and a difficult week has ended on a good note for us."

Kidderminster moved above Tamworth in the table by ending the visitors' run of five league matches without defeat.

But it may have been a different story if former Kidderminster campaigner Francino Francis had been slightly more accurate with a header which hit the top of the bar after just three minutes.

Francis was in the spotlight again three minutes later when he needlessly brought down Marc Williams in front of goal to enable Vaughan to put Harriers ahead with a well-taken penalty.

Needlessly

Dave Bird was then denied the chance of extending the hosts' lead when he saw his header brilliantly saved by keeper Jonathan Hedge.

Harriers, however, made it 2-0 in the 18th minute when the ball dropped kindly for Guinan and he scored with an excellent shot on the turn.

Harriers' new keeper Tony Breeden was not called on to make a serious save until the 39th minute when he stopped a shot from former Aggborough hit-man Lysean Christie.

The Lambs looked more threatening after the break but were unable to penetrate the Aggborough rear-guard which was again well served by full-back Vaughan. In the dying stages, Marc Williams had an effort cleared off the line, but 2-0 was a fair result in a match which ended a sequence of three consecutive league draws between the sides.

Whild said: "The early goal gave us a bit of a lift and in the second half I always thought we were comfortable and we managed to see the game out and keep a clean sheet."

DK at Twickenham to launch awards

Staff from Dudley Kingswinford were special guests at Twickenham when they helped launch the RFU President's XV Awards.

The awards are handed out to clubs which have promoted the development of grassroots rugby and DK won the communications and technology award for 2011.

As well as attending the launch, DK club members Ken Crane and David Coyle met England rugby stars Joe Worsley and Maggie Alphonisi and RFU president Willie Wildash. Other 2011 winners were also invited to Twickenham and Mr Crane said it was a fantastic experience.

"We have had the opportunity to meet other President's XV winners and discuss how to overcome different challenges within a grassroots rugby club," he added.

DK's award, which they received in March, came in recognition of creating DK TV which shows match highlights on the club's website.

Willie Wildash, RFU President said: "It's a real honour to launch this year's awards which reward the hard work and innovation which helps grows and sustain our game."

Hasbury showing their six appeal

Stourbridge Girls League U14 BUSTLEHOLME 1 HASBURY 6

With Hasbury away to Bustleholme the first real attack at goal saw Bustleholme score, with a good move down the left, their striker shot past Shannon Worsley for 1-0. Hasbury, still misfiring, started to get back into the game and midway into the half Ellis Hall struck the ball sweetly for a 1-1 scoreline at half time.

With some inspired words from the coach, Hasbury began to look a different team with their passing and movement it had Bustleholme on the back foot. A great passing move saw Ellis Hall score her second to put Hasbury 2-1 in front.

Hasbury, now in full flow, pinned Bustleholme back with some great wing play from Levi Cheadle and Sian Berry and Siobhan Peplow's powerful runs through the middle, and from one corner Ellis Hall swung the ball right into a crowded box which somehow went in for 3-1 and Ellis Hall's hat-trick.

Another powerful run by Siobhan Peplow saw her run 30 yards with the ball and deliver a powerful cross which found Sian Berry who turned and somehow with a defender with her, put the ball into her own net. The goal was later credited to Sian Berry after reviewing the move.

Sian Berry scored her second goal and Hasbury's fifth. The best move of the game saw Becky Hurley's pass find Levi to cross into the box for Meg to collect turn and smash the ball against the side of the post for it to fall to Sian to crack home her third and Hasbury's sixth.

Missed penalty leads to a draw

Kingswinford Eagles 1 Sedgley White Lions 1

Sedgley missed a late penalty and were held to a 1-1 draw in this Stourbridge League U-13s encounter.

Mary Billington gave Sedgley the lead on 20 minutes, finishing a great team move.

The hosts rallied in the second half and grabbed the equaliser with just five minutes to go.

Sedgley are currently on the lookout for new players from Years 7 and 8.

It's a big 10-4 for the Kings

Kingswinford 10 Newtown 4

Kingswinford's Captain Adam Pritchard and Coach Billy Jawanda tried a new formation.

The forward pairing of Chris Brown and Colin Morris both scored a goal a piece within five minutes to give K-ford a great start.

Newtown scored two excellent goals despite Keeper Tim Sanders best efforts to keep them out.

The second half saw K-ford attack in numbers.

Colin Morris squared an excellent ball to Surjit Takhar, who made no mistake from four yards out.

Takhar added to his tally three minutes later. Cole Hickman put K-ford back in control after a superb reverse stick goal.

Morris scored his brace after a clean through-ball from Kam Maan. K-ford scored further goals from Takhar, Chris Brown, Billy Jawanda, Sam George and Ed Parkes. With the game beyond Newtown, K-ford relaxed too much and Newtown added two more goals to make the result respectable.

Kidderminster 1 Kingswinford 3

Right from the off Kingswinford mounted tremendous pressure on the home team, consistently keeping the ball in the opposition's half.

A Kiddy forward beat defender Paul Sangha with a good finish scooped the ball past the stranded keeper Glenn Dunn.

K-ford soon drew level with a fine attacking move between the constantly threatening, Daman with Sunny and Guneet, the latter finishing with the score.

Moments later a great pass from Daman was picked up by Billy Sandhu swept it into the net.

In the second half it seemed likely K-ford's inability to kill off the game would be their undoing as the midfield and defence began to make uncharacteristic mistakes.

Ravi was reintroduced with about 10 minutes to go as "golden oldie" Richard latched on to a nice through ball and played it to Ravi's right. He beat one player before advancing into the D and delivering a telling cross. A harassed defender couldn't control the ball and deflected it goal bound. As the ball headed goalward, Richard was on hand to make sure it crossed the line.

On reflection the whole team played very well as a unit, something they must strive to do more regularly.

Man of the Match was a close call between Daman and Billy but has been awarded to Billy for a very strong and positive impact.

Amazing fightback denied at the death

Rosslyn Park 33 Stourbridge 24

Stourbridge Saxons fell agonisingly short against Rosslyn Park after a brilliant second-half fightback was snuffed out in the dying moments of the match.

The Saxons almost overturned a half-time deficit of 25-3, closing to within four points with just moments left only to concede a sucker punch try.

The fightback began early in the second half from a line out that the pack drove into the Park 22 and back row Matt Thomas went over.

Then the coaching staff sent on all five Stourbridge replacements on 66 minutes which reaped immediate dividends as new fly-half Mark Woodrow put up a great kick and Ben Barkley timed his run perfectly to put in one of the hits of the season on Nev Edwards. The Park full back was driven backwards and limped off the pitch shortly afterwards. It also forced a turnover from which James Rodley scored, Hearn again added the extras.

With five minutes left on the clock Ben

Hughes popped up wide on the right and went over for a try. The momentum seemed to be with the visitors but it was Park who had the final say sealing the win by driving upfield from the kick off before spreading wide for Chris Lewis to finish.

Rosslyn Park: Edwards (Lewis 68), Parsons, Shabbo, Robinson, Rudd, Laidlaw, Baxter (Bar 71), Owens, Richmond, Ward, Lloyd-Jones, Anderson, Trayfoot (Rowland 59), Campbell (Barrett 70), Lock, Rep (not used); Huggett

ROBINS SHOW THEY CAN PLAY BIG TIME

Glassboys face replay after late hit from Kendal

DUDLEY TOWN 2 AFC WULFRUNIANS 0

West Midlands (Regional) League
Premier Division

Dudley Town's turbulent 18 months appear to be at an end as Andy Burgess' side proved they can once again compete with the big boys of the West Midlands Premier League with a defining 2-0 victory over AFC Wulfrunians.

The win, which also saw the Robins record a clean sheet for the first time since April's 1-0 victory at Lye Town led Dudley extend their unbeaten run to seven games.

It didn't look too good for the home side at the start of the day with influential midfielder Ben Stretton being ruled out of the game owing to suspension, while Croatian striker Dreniz Bala was still suffering with the same hamstring injury that had forced him off during Town's 2-1 victory at Bustleholme a week prior.

But the Robins' side these days can once again boast strength in depth with capable replacements for the two missing figures, meaning both Alex Perry, who was making his 100th appearance for Dudley, and Ben Store came into the starting 11.

Dudley started the game in positive fashion and it wasn't long before Store found the in form Rion Francis-Mills who failed to make the most of his chance when his shot cleared the crossbar. But Wulfrunians looked dangerous and the 2008/9 champions were unlucky not to be ahead when Dan Crudgington rose to beat the impressive home debutant Jay Trevalen – but his looping header failed to meet the target.

As the first half progressed it was the hosts who looked the most likely to take the lead. Indeed, they should have done when some clever footwork by Francis-Mills left himself clear on goal but could only find the grateful Marc Evans with his low shot.

Comical

Dudley hustled and hustled the visitor's defence and eventually got their due rewards in comical fashion. The solid Graham Ashton managing to head the ball past Evans right on the half-hour mark.

In all honesty the home side should have been two ahead by the break with Store and Francis-Mills both coming close in a fixture that was swinging more the hosts way with every second.

Although Wulfs returned to the field with a renewed sense of purpose and Trevalen had to be on top form to tip wide a shot from the menacing Crudgington. While at the same time Evans had to be on the ball after a beautiful pass from Francis-Mills set up Store. The former Lye Town man seeing his fierce shot well blocked by Evans.

Dudley's defence held firm as the back four reaped the rewards of a well-deserved clean sheet, although Alex Perry was The Robins' saviour with just 11 minutes left when he blocked a thunderous strike from Ashton on the line.

With the light fading and the floodlights at The Dell piercing the darkness for the first time this season on a Saturday, Ben Store sealed the game for Dudley. Connecting to a fine cross from Danny Ludlow he made no mistake in calmly turning the ball past Marc Evans with just five minutes remaining.

Not even the introduction of former Dudley fan's favourite Gary Piggett's son Tom could turn the tide for the Wulfs as Dudley looked the most likely to score again when Harry Williams forced a fine one-on-one stop from Evans in the closing moments of the contest.

This was a very different Wulfrunians side from the past several seasons but they are a club that will be expecting to be in the mix for honours at the end of the season.

For Dudley they are certainly in a position to start looking ahead to their future although a tough litmus test rears its head when Bewdley Town visit The Dell.

No goals are a no go for Tividale's ambitions

TIVIDALE 0 HEATHROW ST JOHNS 0

Tividale missed out on the opportunity to make up ground on the leading Midland Alliance teams when they were held to a goalless draw in an intriguing match.

The hosts began brightly and dominated the opening exchanges without being able to create any significant openings.

In fact, it was central defender Mark Turton who had their best effort when his enterprising run saw him shoot just over the bar from 25 yards in the ninth minute.

Two minutes later the visitors managed their first attempt on goal when Troy Wallen's 20-yard effort produced an identical result. In the 13th minute Tividale skipper Andy Parsons forced a good save from Saints goal-keeper Jamie Brassington.

Although Tividale continued to press forward and enjoy the lion's share of the possession, they were restricted to long-range efforts from Sam Williams and Parsons and a close-range header from an acute angle by Kyle Hill.

Lively

The visitors opened the second half with a lot more intent and it took a good last-gasp tackle from Parsons to prevent the lively Wallen closing in on the Tividale goal.

For a period of time it was the visitors who were enjoying the majority of attempts on goal without really threatening. Parsons went close to breaking the deadlock but his powerful header from 12 yards went just over.

A sustained spell of constant pressure from Tividale saw substitute Matt Jukes hit the post from close range in the 68th minute.

As the pressure mounted in a final flurry, another Tividale substitute, Matt Salmon, put the ball the wrong side of the post when he met a low cross in the 78th minute.

Tividale manager Dean Whitehouse admitted he was disappointed not to have taken all three points but said: "We needed something special to unlock their defence."

"We worked hard enough but St Johns deserved their draw."

Brett Clark attempts to bring the ball under control

FA Carlsberg Trophy 2nd Qualifying Round

STOURBRIDGE 3 KENDAL TOWN 3

Gary Hackett's men must make the long journey Tuesday night after the Cumbrian visitors grabbed a late equaliser to earn a replay from an exciting, incident-packed and sometimes fiery cup tie.

Stourbridge had the better of the early play and almost scored straight from the kick-off with Sean Geddes laying the ball off to Ben Billingham who picked out Aaron Drake whose angled shot drifted past the post. Kendal responded with Kieran Walmesley striking a free-kick that Lewis Solly got behind.

The hosts pressed again on 10 minutes with Drew Canavan releasing Ryan Rowe into the left-hand side of the box. His shot drew a parried save from Tom Newton and when the resulting right-wing flag-kick from Drake was not cleared, Canavan teed up Drake who crashed a shot against the bar.

The Glassboys carved out another opportunity in the 15th minute as Paul McCone clipped the ball through to Rowe who blazed it wide of the near post.

It was against the run of play when Leadbetter fired the Evo-stik Northern Premier side in-front after 17 minutes.

Ciaran Donnelly seized on a loose ball in midfield and slipped a measured pass into the path of Leadbetter who slotted home past Solly.

The visitors lead lasted just seven minutes as Stourbridge got back on level terms when Drake rolled a free-kick to Canavan and he rifled a 25-yard screamer beyond Newton. Home hopes were dealt a blow three minutes later following a tangle on the ground between Drake and Kendal defender Marc Joseph. Drake saw red for kicking out at Joseph who received a yellow card for his role in the incident.

Rasping

The fired up hosts rallied to take the lead on 29 minutes with Ben Billingham finding the top corner of the net with a rasping 25-yard free-kick.

The drama continued as Lee Ashcroft's side restored parity in the 36th minute after a mistake from Solly. Danny Williams looked to stand up a cross from the left and Solly at his near post only succeeded in palming the ball down to leave Alex Taylor with the simplest of finishes into an empty net.

In the final minute of the half Stourbridge forged in-front once more as Canavan was put clear through by Rowe and he slipped his shot past the post, but was also upended inside the box by Newton.

The referee pointed to the spot and after showing a yellow to Newton, Sean Geddes stepped forward and his penalty found the net.

Stourbridge might have added another five minutes after the restart as Rowe found Canavan on the right-hand side of the box and he curled a shot against the far post.

As the half wore on though, Kendal began to push the home side back and threatened to make their extra-man pay. Stourbridge did have opportunities to break and sub Josh Craddock should have done better with 15 minutes left after Rowe and Billingham combined before Billingham supplied a low centre, but Craddock lofted his shot over.

Three minutes later Kendal also found themselves down to 10 men as Rowe looked to release Billingham who was pursued by both Leadbetter and Donnelly and when Billingham was brought down by Leadbetter just outside the box, the visiting midfielder was given his marching orders.

A strong run from Danny Wisdom took him past two Stourbridge players before he delivered in a deep cross that Kilfin couldn't force home under pressure, but the ball broke for sub Mark Jackson to shoot home from close range. The hosts could still have found a winner in the dying moments with Canavan seeing a shot pushed away by Newton, while Craddock squandered another chance in stoppage.
